TRUDE BUYS OLD FOLKS HOME PROPERTY

The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

We were taken down a peg Monday when a friend said, "You should not be so cocky about being still on the job on your 72nd birthday. A good editor would have amassed a sufficient amount of this world's goods to retire long ago."

There must be few good editors, because there are not many who go on the retired list. They just die with their "boots on."

The personal property bugaboo arose in a meeting of the Cook county board last week. The county is nicked for a three per cent bond interest rate on a $15,000,000 bond issue, they were told, because of its failure to collect personal property taxes.

That may explain why Mt. Prospect and other local governing bodies are now required to pay three per cent or higher interest.

Every unpaid personal property tax bill causes a partial default on all existing bond issues which bond bankers do not like. In order to save the credit of the municipality or school district, the tax shortage is taken from the general fund.

We have a grandson who is young enough to travel through space with Capt. Video, the space cadets, and the other space riders. It is something more than just imagination with him.

It will be more so for the youngster whose family will reside in the Better Homes and Gardens House that Wm. Trude has erected at the corner of Orchard and Chestnut st., Arlington Heights.

Those movie and TV programs will be very real as the youngster takes his evening bath and he looks upward. Through the glass dome over the bathroom he will see, not a ceiling, but the sky.

We had a preview of that house Tuesday afternoon. It is very interesting and will cause a tremendous amount of comment among women folk, whose opinions we would like to get over a wire recorder secreted somewhere. The general public must wait until Aug. 28 when the "ribbons will be removed."

It is expected that between 50,000 and 75,000 persons will inspect that home during September.

The people over Niles way are depending a lot on their large industries to help them build a hospital. Arlington Heights wants a hospital, but does not want large industries, which means that the individual must dig deep if that hospital desire is to be fulfilled here.

The editor joins the hundreds of Arlington Heights citizens who are sorrowful over the unexpected death of Raymond Becker, a public employee whose municipal duties brought him in direct contact with a large part of water users. Ray was not only a good fisherman, but also an honest and capable public servant. We will all miss him.

Alderman Charles Rehfeldt, Arlington Heights, chairman of the finance committee is publishing an annual financial statement that carries down to the last decimal point the financial affairs of the village. It appears in this issue.

There is a lot of interesting data in that report, which is the most complete financial statement of any village that we have ever published.

It accounts for a large amount of money. We hope that the people of Arlington Heights who are interested in municipal affairs will spend an evening studying the statement.

Palatine claims that it is about to erect a $700,000 schoolhouse that will be the last word in design and practicability. District 15 is promised a Cadillac school at a Ford price. The architect has adopted a new method of contract award. The builders interested in the building have all been screened and those not wanted will not receive bidding blanks.

The bidders will know that they will be called upon to sharpen their pencils to give the lowest possible bid for a schoolhouse in which there can be no cheating and few extras.

The architect and school board have already cut all the corners there are to be cut. They think they will get a better school house for less money by this method of contract award.

The erection of a group of single, two and three room apartments on the old folks home property, Northwest hwy., is the best news that Arlington Heights apartment hunters have had for a long time. It is also good news to the school systems which need housing for teachers. The property is also large enough to provide parking space for tenants. We have held up the headline on this week's edition several weeks awaiting definite announcement of the sale of the property.

Hospital Depends on United Support

JC's Foot Bill Of $1,000 For Preliminary Survey

The "starter button" for a hospital in this area was stepped on Friday night when the Wheeling Township Junior Chamber of Commerce announced to a small group of interested citizens that they had spent $1,000 to have a hospital survey made of the area.

"In the past we have talked, and talked and talked about the need of a hospital," said Theodore Seiler, Jaycee president, "now let's have some action."

A spokesman for the National Fund Raising Services, Inc., said that it had made a preliminary survey, sufficient to convince them that the project was so big that its success would depend upon the interest in the project of a great many individuals and organizations. He suggested such an organization or expression of interest be secured as the first step.

IN THE MEANTIME organizations from the entire area, which will include Wheeling, Prospect Heights, Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Palatine, Barrington and rural areas in these four townships, plus Schaumburg township, are being contacted, inviting them to get in on the ground floor of this drive.

"If a hospital is to be built, one town can not do it alone," advised the Fund Raising spokesman. "It can only become a reality if all the towns work together. If each town goes its own separate way to get a hospital, the project will be defeated before it's even started."

He further pointed out that it was necessary to contact the medical center to see if doctors want a hospital in the area and if they will be able to staff such a hospital if built.

A doctor present at the meeting said any hospital built would have to be on a large enough scale to attract local doctors. Therefore the more mass interest and support that can be evoked the better the chance for a bigger and fully equipped hospital.

THE GROUP attending the initial meeting adopted the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the need for adequate hospital facilities in this area has been and continues to be a critical problem deserving the immediate concern of all interested community groups and civic-minded individuals and,

RESOLVED, that the nature and scope of this problem is such as to require the united action and cooperative effort of all such groups and individuals and,

WHEREAS, the Wheeling Township Jaycees have retained a professional fund-raising organization of national reputation known as The National Fund-Raising Services, Inc. to conduct an area-wide survey to determine the extent of the need for said hospital facilities and to also determine the potential economic resources available to provide the necessary financial support for said hospital facilities and,

WHEREAS, the Wheeling Township Jaycees have invested a sum of $1,000, the major portion of which has been paid, to procure a technical analysis of the need, scope and economic potential affecting an organized campaign for an area hospital.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the group here present form itself into an Action Committee to cooperate, organize, promote and in all ways endeavor to create the establishment of a Hospital Board to be chartered as a non-profit corporation, the single purpose of which shall be to take action toward the objective of providing a hospital.

Hutten Elected President 1953 Community Chest

Henry B. Hutten, 201 E. Orchard, was elected president of Arlington Heights Community

Chest at a meeting of the board of directors of the Arlington Heights community chest.

Other officers named that evening, all of whom have accepted are: Q. K. Ford, first vice president; Walter Hanson Jr., second vice prseident; Mrs. George N. Tuttle, secretary; Arthur Franzen, treasurer.

UNTIL MR. HUTTEN calls a meeting of the board of directors, no definite announcement can be made regarding the policy to be followed in this year's Red Feather campaign. However, the group in attendance at the annual meeting last week expressed its desire that the 1953 Community Chest be confined to local charities, in view of the fact that certain national foundations are adverse to participation in joint fund raising campaign.

Last year the total receipts of the Arlington Heights community chest drive was $16,360.66; expenses $297.50. Local organizations were given $9,990, others $2,740, leaving a balance of $3,333.16.

THE INCREASING number of industries who are moving outside of Chicago has led to the formation of a suburban community chest group, the purpose of which is to allegate to individual communities amounts paid to the suburban industries as directed by the giver. Chicago community chest does not recognize any such request.

Although Arlington Heights has not been a member of the suburban group, a substantial check was recently received.

Complete list of board of directors are:

One year term: Nat Burfeind, W. Hanson Jr., Gus Heidorn, Dave Heinemann, Malcolm Lund, Lester McAuliffe, Dan Schuerin.

Two year term: Robert Bishop, Q. K. Ford, C. R. Kreibel, N. M. Lattof, Dr. L. L. Linn, George Tuttle, Lloyd Taylor.

Three year term: Arthur Franzen, Mrs. Wilbur Hartmann, Henry Hutten, William Gerbosi, Mrs. Carl Clare, Albert Peters, Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson.

Dr. Bostian Leaves Soon for 2 Year Hitch in Navy

Dr. Paul Bostian, who has practiced denistry in Arlington Heights for 15 years, will leave the end of this month to spend two years as a dentist in the navy.

He will be stationed in Parris Island, South Carolina. His wife and two daughters, Ruth Ann, 9, and Sharon, 12, will accompany him there and their home address will be 403 Frazier dr., Beaufort, South Carolina.

Lt. Comdr. Bostian has had a navy commission for 13 years. From 1938 to 1946 he taught students of denistry at the University of Illinois, Navy Pier branch in Chicago.

The doctor and his family plan to return to Arlington Heights, where he will resume his practice, when he completes his hitch with the navy.

Parking Committee Holds First Session; Get Many Suggestions

Almost every person present at the "parking" meeting Friday night spoke "his piece." There was so much "evidence" presented that chairman Plank and his committee members have a lot of suggestions to weigh before that group can make a definite recommendation to the plan commission, itself, for passage on to the village board.

The right answer to the problem will require some compromises if the greater number of business men and others are to be happy with the definite decision. The reporter present that evening marks the score sheet as follows:

Little interest in one-way.

Majority agree that off street parking is the only answer; purchase of the land to be accomplished by

a. Revenue bonds backed by parking meter revenue.
b. General obligation bonds retired by doubling present business licenses which would underwrite $200,000 in bonds to be retired in 20 years.
c. Volunteer cash subscriptions by business interests sufficient to enter upon contracts of sale to complete purchase making monthly payments in amounts about equaling the returns from parking meters.

Adoption of original Stanton and Rockwell report which called for construction of a new Davis st. through present railroad park.

Widening of Davis st. by 15 feet, but saving the present trees.

All present agreed that there should be no delay. The general sentiment favored the immediate rezoning of the Sieburg lot facing Highland. This parking lot would be open to shoppers, except during funeral hours. Its purchase, rental and maintenance would be done by Lauterburg and Oehler.

Elmer Crane suggested that if the North Western stopped the commuter trains at the race track platform, a lot of residents of Arlington Park, Sherwood and Arlington Crest could take trains there and leave their cars in the garage. The Lions offered to conduct a survey among the business men.

One suggestion that brought no response was rental of property south of the city hall to business men and residents in the downtown apartments who would pay a monthly fee sufficient to allow free customer parking near Vail st.

The charge was repeatedly made that local business men are disregarding the one hour parking privilege, their cars occupying spaces that belong to shoppers.

Post office employees are keeping their cars off the street by renting space from a private owner.

In addition to Evrell Plank, other members of the plan commission sub-committee on parking are William McNeal and Elmer Crane. Village trustees present included Robert Bishop, Richard Bronwell and David Zimmerman.

Raymond Becker, Village Head, Dies On Fishing Trip

Raymond J. Becker, superintendent of Arlington Heights public works, died Saturday night from a heart attack while fishing in Chippewa river, 30 miles from Hayward, Wis.

WITH HIS TWO brothers-in-law, Art Boesche, Mt. Prospect, and Harold Proebstle, Arlington Heights, Becker was fishing for muskies. He had just pulled in his line when he slumped over. He was caught by the other occupants of the boat who hastily pulled for shore where efforts to revive him were unsuccessful.

They were ten miles from the nearest telephone. Wives of the three men had just returned to the cabins, at the Musky Rapids resort.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Black funeral home, with interment in Randhill.

Ray, as everybody at the municipal building called him, had been so well that it had been years since he had undergone a physical examination. His hobby was "fishing," a sport that he loved and the family feels that if it was his time to go, there was no better way.

MR. BECKER entered the employ of the village in 1941. He became superintendent of public works in 1947. "Becker was a loyal worker and could always be depended upon to handle his job in the best interest of the municipality," says Mayor Goedke.

"His co-workers had the highest respect for his judgment and the orders he gave. Ray's experience in the street and water works department were invaluable," says Trustee William Luehring, underwho se direction he became initiated in municipal construction and maintenance.

THERE ARE many highlights of the three day program. The competitive showing of farm products, livestock and products of the home and field, will attract everyone at the fair.

The association has secured some fine entertainment for each of the three days. Judging of entries occurs early Friday afternoon, which will include not alone the beef, dairy, poultry and swine, but also the home economic booths, dairy showmanship, etc. Headlining the evening program the first day will be the Arlington Heights high school band and Captain Stubby and the Buccaneers of WLS.

Entertainment Saturday evening will include a home talent show at 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. and the 4-H trio of Gardner, Ill. Sunday at 1 p.m. the second annual horse show will be presented.

THE FAMOUS Northwest Mounted Black Horse Troop will again parade and demonstrate horsemanship in jumping, an event, greatly enjoyed last year. It will begin at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon. The Town and Country Chorus and the Barber Shop quartet are included in the evening program, which will end with the crowning of the 4-H King and Queen.

Between shows and at all other hours, afternoon and evening, patrons may visit over 40 booths, including those containing machinery and autos.

There is no admission charge and promises to be an enjoyable outing for the entire family.

May Mean Erection Of Needed Apartments For Teachers, Others

Trude Land Development Co., of which William Trude is president, has entered into a contract for the purchase of the Arlington Heights property that is to be vacated this fall by Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged.

The dedication committee of that organization considered a number of offers for the 3½ acres and buildings, which it has owned and operated about 60 years. Selection of the purchaser was made Tuesday evening. Consideration of the purpose for which the property is to be used was one factor in awarding the sale to the Trude organization.

RICHARD G. HAYES of the Trude group was the sole broker in the transaction. Recognizing the possibility of putting the property to a use that would be beneficial to the entire village, Mr. Hayes and Architect Walter Kroeber outlined their plan to Mr. Trude, who gave it his approval. The purchase offer followed.

No announcement of complete plans can be made until the architect completes his work. The property covers an entire block. It is zoned for business and multiple housing. The main building will be wrecked. Construction of greatly needed small apartments for teachers and others underlined the Trude offer and its acceptance.

The new home for the aged will be dedicated October 11. The old quarters will be vacated soon afterwards.

Donald V. Grote New Junior High School Principal

DONALD GROTE

The board of education of District 25, has employed Donald V. Grote as principal of the Arlington Heights junior high school, Superintendent Ralph E. Clabaugh announced today. Grote will begin his duties August 10, in preparation for the opening of school in September.

Grote has been employed at Jennings, Missouri, a suburb of St. Louis, where he served as a principal. He holds a master's degree from the University of Illinois and has had several years of successful experience in Illinois before going to Missouri.

He comes highly recommended, both by those with whom he has worked and by educational leaders with whom he has studied. He was selected after a careful study of the credentials of a large number of applicants. He was one of ten men who were invited to come to Arlington Heights to be interviewed by the superintendent, and he came to the community a second time to meet with the board of education, at which time he was employed.

The new principal has a wife and two children, a daughter entering first grade and a son entering third grade. He is extremely anxious to rent a house in the community so that he may bring his family here in time for the opening of school. Members of the community are urged to cooperate in this effort by calling the superintendent's office if they can assist in any way in this search.

Teenagers on Streets At Late Hour to Account To Police and Parents

Arlington Heights police have been authorized to pick up teenagers who are found loitering on the streets at an unreasonable hour at night. They are to bring them into the station and will call the parents to come in and pick them up.

"It is hoped that this new precaution will aid in the prevention of juvenile crimes before they even get started," said Trustee Richard Bronwell, chairman of the police committee. "Many times parents think their children are at a movie or some other place of entertainment, when in reality they may be roaming the streets. By having parents come to the station to pick up their offspring they will have full knowledge of what the youngsters were doing during the evening."

Name Board For Arlington YMCA

Organization of the new northwest suburban YMCA is being completed with the selection of a local board of directors. Representatives from Arlington Heights and Des Plaines requested the organization of a suburban YMCA as a community department of the YMCA of Chicago recently at the general offices of the YMCA of Chicago.

The area for this new YMCA includes all the territory from Des Plaines through Arlington Heights. This area has a population of approximately 50,000 and is growing rapidly.

THE FOLLOWING local community leaders have consented to serve on the board from Arlington Heights: Robert P. Campbell, Quentin K. Ford, Herbert K. Hackbarth, Earl Hadlund, Henry B. Hutten, Nicholas M. Lattof, Harold L. Slichenmyer, Robert Stauber, and Lloyd Taylor. Other members will be added later. Community leaders are also being selected from Des Plaines.

Of the 32 YMCAs which make up the YMCA of Chicago, 15 are of the community type. Six of these are in suburban territory outside the Chicago city limits. The northwest suburban YMCA will be the seventh community department in the suburbs. Each of these community suburban YMCAs include several neighboring towns. They do not have the large buildings and physical equipment customarily associated with a YMCA. Yet they serve great numbers of youth and adults and they have represented in recent years one of the major ways in which the Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago has grown.

COMMUNITY YMCAs are essentially de-centralized non-equipment programs, relying primarily upon volunteer adult leadership in the towns which are a part of it, guided by two or three professionally trained secretaries. Each local town has a program committee which determines the activities according to local need.

Much of the program for boys and girls and for men and women which a community-type YMCA sponsors utilizes facilities available in its neighborhood—family homes, churches, schools, libraries and parks and playgrounds.

25 Year Neglect Jeopardizes Million Dollar Treatment Plant

The effectiveness of the recently completed million dollar Arlington Heights sewage treatment plant was saved Monday evening when the village board let a contract for $6,500 to clean out a length of sewer in which the residue of the original treatment plant emptied. It has been slowly but surely filling up for a quarter of a century.

It has been necessary that the new plant be shut down until the work is completed.

The discovery of the unexpected deposit was made ten days ago. Engineers told the village board Monday evening that it would not only be necessary to clean out 350 feet of 12 x 8 ft. tile between the old plant and the new one, but it would also be necessary to clean out the tile between the new plant and the sewer outlet at Weller Creek on Central rd.

Mayor Goedke stated that as far as he knows, the grit has never been removed since the plant construction in 1928. The firm engaged to handle the first stage of the cleaning out process estimated that 30-8 hour days would be required for the cleaning of the 350 feet, for which the price of $6,500 was given.

If necessary they could work in 3-8 hour shifts a day and complete the job in ten days, weather permitting. The board asked that the quickest method be used to enable the plant to be put back in operation as soon as possible.

Miss King Receives Appointment in Mora Valley, New Mexico

Miss Roberta Hull King, director of Christian education at First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights, was appointed August 1 as director of Christian education in Mora Valley parish, New Mexico, by the board of national missions of the Presbyterian church in the U.S.A.

She will serve four widely-scattered congregations of Spanish-American people in Northern New Mexico. Second Presbyterian church in Las Vegas, New Mexico, one of these churches, is the oldest of the Spanish Presbyterian churches. The other three congregations lie within a 75-mile radius of Las Vegas.

Miss King was born in Chicago, and attended the local public schools. She was graduated from Schurz high school, then received her B.A. in music at Beloit college, Beloit, Wis., and her M.A. in Christian Education at McCormick Seminary, Chicago.

During the winter of her senior year in high school, Miss King attended the Older Girls' conference on missions at Saugatuch, Mich. The theme, "Whom Shall I Send . . . Send Me" deeply impressed her and she resolved to enter mission service She has always been interested in mission work in New Mexico and after spending the summer between college and seminary working with Rev. William Lytle at Reserve, New Mexico, she knew she would return there some day.

In college Miss King sang in the vesper choir and was a member of the Independent Student association and Maurer fellowship, society for pre-ministerial students. She was a song leader; secretary of the design for living group, a religious discussion group; and a dormitory secretary.

During the past year, Miss King was director of Christian education and music director of the First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights.

Ellen Weaver Receives Scholarship to Brigham Young University

Miss Weaver, a graduate of the class of 1953 at the Arlington Heights high school, was active in student council and music activities throughout her high school career.

Alderman Bishop Suggests Municipal Water Softening

(Presented to the Village Board, August 4, by Robert B. Bishop, Water Department Chairman)

In the year ending April 30, 1953, a total of 229,047,496 gallons of water was pumped to metered customers. The revenue from this totaled $95,062.00 for water plus $43,138.00 for sewer charges —for a total revenue of $138,200.00.

In addition to this revenue, there was other income in the amount of $32,064.00 for construction water meters, lead pipe, etc., making a total revenue in the combined water and sewer departments of $170,264.00. (An average of $.743 per 1,000 gallons.)

The costs of operation in the 1952/53 period totaled $82,486.00 ($.360 per 1,000 gallons) plus provisions for bond retirement as provided by ordinance of $33,900.00. ($.148 per 1,000 gallons) for a total expense of $116,386.00. ($.508 per 1,000 gallons.) This left a net profit of $53,878.00. ($.235 per 1,000 gallons.).

During this period (1952/53) neither of the two new utilities, the Water Pumping Station nor the Sewage Disposal Plant were in operation, both still being under construction. Therefore, we have no experience basis of actual operating costs of the new utility.

The budgeted amount for water and sewer operations in the 1953/54 period totals $168,300.00 (including provision for bond retirement). If the revenue were to remain the same as the 1952/53 period ($170,264.00) the operations would be very close to breaking even.

The revenue, however, for the 1953/54 period is going to increase. We estimate this to be 15% due to new homes and increased usage of the utilities. Therefore, we anticipate revenue of $193,200.00. This would approximate a net profit of $25,200.00.

On the basis of these estimates, a slight reduction in the water and sewer rate would appear practical. These figures are based on estimates only. We feel that no reduction should be made that is based solely on estimates. We would prefer to wait a sufficient time to permit the accumulation of actual operating expenses and costs.

If our projected revenue and estimated expenditures are correct, a reduction in the rates is very probably. My specific recommendation is that we wait until at least October, 1954, before taking any action.

Before a rate reduction is to be allowed, I would like to suggest that the members of the board consider presenting to the voters a referendum on a bond issue for the construction of a municipal water softening plant.

At my request, the village engineers have made a preliminary study of such a project. Two installations, one at the well at Recreation Park and one at the new well, including the cost of tie-in mains, would cost approximately $350,000.00. The cost of operations based on 1,000,000 gallons per day (our estimated consumption for 1954-55) including bond retirement, would be approximately $.08 per 1,000 gallons.

Therefore, if a rate reduction in the water and sewer rates is to be allowed, we might be able to offer to the voters the additional convenience and service of soft water without any material change in the present total water bill.

For the sake of comparison with other northwest communities, listed below are water rates for a few of them.

	Minimum per Quarter	Gallons 10,000	20,000	50,000
Park Ridge	8,000 gal. ($3.84)	$4.54	$8.02	$18.86
Barrington	5,000 gal. ($3.00)	5.00	8.00	15.50
Mount Prospect	$2.25	3.80	7.60	18.10
Des Plaines	------	4.40	8.80	17.60
				(40,000 gal.)
Glenview	7,500 gal. ($3.00)	3.88	7.38	17.38
Arlington Heights	5,000 gal. ($2.25)	4.50	8.50	17.50

Parents Asked To Register New Elementary Pupils August 17-28

All parents of students who will be new to the Arlington Heights elementary schools this September are urged to register them during the weeks of August 17 and August 24. Principals will be in their offices on and after August 17 and will devote the hours from 8:30 a.m. to noon to this purpose, except that registrations at the Ridge school will be conducted during the afternoon.

If the child has attended another school, his transfer card and report card should, if possible, be presented. A birth certificate or some other acceptable verification of the date of birth is also required. In the case of kindergarten children, or first graders who have not previously attended school, physical and dental examinations are required before the child can be registered. Blanks for this purpose can be secured by calling at or telephoning the school office.

It is especially important that kindergarten, first, and second grade pupils be registered well in advance of the opening of school, as conferences with parents will be scheduled during what will be the first days of classes for older youngsters. Classes for all students above second grade will begin Tuesday, September 8. In spite of rumors to the contrary, the board does not now believe it will be necessary to postpone the opening of school in order to have the new buildings ready for occupancy.

Schools and locations are as follows:

NORTH SCHOOL, 410 N. State rd. This school will accommodate all fourth and fifth grade students north of the railway and all kindergarten through third grade pupils north of the railway and east of the center of Chestnut ave.

RIDGE SCHOOL, Fernandez ave. and Vine st. All kindergarten through third grade pupils north of the railroad and west of the center of Chestnut ave. will attend this school. This dividing line represents a change from the previously announced one of Ridge ave.

DRYDEN SCHOOL, Rockwell st. and Dryden pl. Children from kindergarten through fifth grade who live south of the railway and east of State rd. will go here; also, children in those grades living west of State rd. and south of Central rd., except children from that part of the airport which is in this district, will attend the Dryden school.

SOUTH SCHOOL, South st. and Chestnut ave. and Park st. and Mitchell ave. These two buildings will be operated as one unit, serving those kindergarten through fifth grade youngsters living south of the railway, west of State rd., and north of Central rd., plus the small part of the airport which lies in this district. The principal's office for this unit will be in the new building at Park st. and Mitchell ave. but all new pupils in this area will be registered in the older South school until after August 28.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, 314 S. Highland ave. All students in sixth, seventh, and eighth grades from the entire district attend this school.

All schools and the superintendent's office are reached by telephone by calling CLearbrook 3-6100.

The board of education regrets that the unusual number of younger children in the Ridge area makes it impossible to house fourth and fifth grade pupils in that building. However, free transportation to the North school for those who desire it will be provided for all fourth and fifth grade students from the Ridge school area.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

It was Hitler's boast that he had a Fifth Column in the countries he was about to invade. Today, I shall make it my boast: this is my fifth column, and it means that I am preparing to fill my space throughout my vacation. On a few occasions I have found it necessary to send something in to the editor from wherever we happen to be.

That has a nice on-the-spot sound, but it really means that the author gets more desperate than he does at home when the deadline nears. It's much better to describe the vacation from memories after one gets home if there should be any reason to describe it at all.

I CERTAINLY hope there is some reason to discuss this one. It has become a thing to be hoped-for. The last two have been cancelled out by medical authorities. Last summer, we sweated out a case of measles and father went to the hospital. That was a vacation?

When spring came around, we thought we would go East and see grandparents and cherry trees in Washington. But there were complications which kept father from making the trip. A few weeks ago, it was all right, but we still have to see the doctor again.

If this column is printed, it will be obvious that nothing came up to alter our plans. I feel that I need it; everybody needs a good vacation.

There are enough personal problems in anybody's work and around anybody's home; it is a simple matter to develop a type of "battle fatigue." Joe might think it would be good just to stick around home for his vacation, that's really a vacation to him since he's away so much during the weeks of the rest of the year. To the little woman, it becomes a two week long week-end, and she's likely to wish that she had lost it.

I COULDN'T do that. At home, I'm never more than 40 feet away from my office. My office is strewn with all manner of reminders of personal problems which I share, with all manner of duties which I ought to get done. These have multiplied in the past few months when I have been supposed not to be doing as much work as usual. What is there to do? Shut the door and turn our backs upon it, and give the car the gas.

In the kind of work that deals with the intangibles of personality and motivation of conduct and the spiritual concerns of people's life, there comes a time when one is just filled up. The only thing left to do is to commit the people you serve to God's care and say, "So long, see you next month."

Three Heights Students Score High on Carleton College Entrance Tests

According to word released by the high school Superintendent's office this week, Robert LeMay son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit LeMay, 220 S. Hi-Lusi, Mount Prospect; Garwood Leckband, son of Dr. and Mrs. Norbert Leckband, 211 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights; and Robert Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pearson, 503 N. Haddow, Arlington Heights, have received high scores on their entrance tests at Carleton college.

These students, because of the high scores achieved on the college board tests in Mathematics, are exempt from any courses in the physical sciences. The director of admissions from Carleton college, Donald H. Klinefelter, congratulated the boys on their academic achievement and their excellent preparation in high school.

Home Bureau Unit Hears Australians

Guests at the August 7 meeting of the Hanover-Schaumburg Home Bureau Unit meeting were Mrs. W. Berry and Mrs. E. Osborne, both of Australia. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Fraas.

Both women, delegates to the International Home Bureau Federation convention which will be held in Toronto, Canada, this month, are members of the Country Women's Association of Australia. This organization is similar to the Home Bureau in United States. Its aim is to promote friendship among the rural women and to better condltions of rural life in the home and community.

Mrs. Berry, in her talk, told members of the unit that Australia is approximately the size of the United States, but has a population of only 10 million people. Six universities in the country make it hard for a young person to obtain a higher education.

Because of poor roads, limited transportation and sheep ranches covering 30,000 to 40,000 acres, no primary schools are found in the rural areas. Children of pre-high school age receive their education via correspondence.

The Country Women's Association was formed to aid in overcoming some of these hinderances. The organization raised funds to erect hostels near the large cities where children could stay at a reduced fee while attending high school. They also erected hostels for expectant mothers near hospitals and rest homes in various communities where women could gather with their children while their husbands took their sheep and cattle to market.

Mrs. Berry also told the group that all the land in the country is government owned and is leased to the people thereby eliminating any property tax. The government, however, taxes personal income 75 per cent.

After Mrs. Berry's talk and the discussion with the group, refreshments were served to the guests and members.

Elk Grove Home Bureau

Elk Grove Unit of Cook county Home Bureau met July 22 at the home of Mrs. Marvin Busse. Mrs. Wallace Busse, Mrs. August Deeke and Mrs. Milton Cramer were co-hostesses.

The major lesson on "Paints and Their Uses in Home Decoration" was given by Mrs. Wallace Deeke and Mrs. Elmer Schoppe. The unit held a white elephant sale at this meeting.

There will be no August meeting.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Villagers looking for a pleasant summer evening's recreation may find it at a summer theatre, with which the Chicago area seems to abound. Any week visitors may choose between visiting stars or established stock companies, comedies, dramas or musicals. Theatres are always within driving distance, usually not more than half or three-quarters of an hour away.

Evanston's established year-round theatre, the Showcase, which is located in the old Stadium theatre near Dyche stadium, offers a new production every other week with the cast made up of its own company and occasional importations. Currently they are doing "The Mad Woman of Chaillot."

Chevy Chase Country club on Milwaukee ave. features theatre-in-the-round, the center stage idea wtih the audience surrounding the actors. An equity cast is now appearing in "The Heiress." Tenthouse theatre in Highland Park also does its shows in the round.

Salt Creek theatre in Hinsdale believes in the star system, and thus those who go there will see a Broadway or Hollywood "name" in the leading role. June Havoc is now at Salt Creek in "Affairs of State."

Located adjacent to the Villa Modern on Skokie hwy., the Music Theatre devotes itself exclusively to musical comedies and operettas. Mia Slavenska of ballet fame heads the cast of the current show, "On Your Toes."

A different sort of evening is in store for those who want to travel a little farther, if they go to the Shady Lane Farm at Marengo. There one may eat a "country style" dinner before seeing their theatrical offering. An organ concert by Preston Sellers is also part of the program. "Affairs of State" is also playing at Shady Lane.

Summertime being what it is, most people seem to prefer lighter entertainment, so that's what most of the summer theatres offer, comedies or comedy-dramas. For a pleasant evening, a trip to a summer theatre is well worth while.

Golf Week

For the players, their wives and other members of the local golf leagues, this is indeed Golf Week. Paddock Publications' annual tournament will be held Sunday at Inverness Golf club pitting the leading teams of the individual leagues against each other.

Tee off time is 12:30, and supper time that day will bring the results of this year's tourney. Awards include a traveling trophy, 12 individual medals and a low net individual prize of a dozen golf balls.

Sewing Susies 4-H Club

The Sewing Susies 4-H club of Arlington Heights will hold their fashion review at the 4-H Fair Saturday night.

The girls will have charge of the ice cream booth Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Members are asked to volunteer to help.

The girls took a trip to the Singer Sewing Co. in Park Ridge last Thursday. The trip was enjoyed by both the leaders and the girls.

To Register New Pupils At St. Peter August 18

All new pupils who will be enrolled for the first time at St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, will be registered at the school August 18, from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Registrations will be held in the school office on the second floor.

Parents are asked to bring birth certificates for children entering kindergarten or first grade for verification of the child's age. Children to be enrolled in kindergarten must be 5 on or before December 2, and those entering first grade must be 6 on or before December 2.

Others enrolling in other grades should bring their report cards and a transfer is possible. (A-PH

TV NEWS

by Don Hager

A lot of male breasts are going to stir with nostalgic memories at the news that Mae West is on the verge of having her own television show. The "Come up and see me sometime" gal is going to star in a series of half-hour TV films. The subject? Great romances of history! Among torrid romances of past that will be put on fireproof film are the stories of Caesar and Cleopatra, Camille and Armand, Priscilla and John Alden, Fatima and Bluebeard, and many others. We wonder how many TV picture tubes Miss West will explode!

Speaking of picture tubes exploding, maybe you've heard wild tales about just this sort of thing happening. Well, it's nothing to worry about, in the normal use of a set. These tubes are highly evacuated, and the glass is therefore subject to air pressure on the outside when it's removed from the set. But they're made of strong, well-tempered glass and it takes quite a blow to smash them. The only real precaution you have to take is to call in an experienced serviceman whenever tube cleaning or testing is necessary. Meanwhile, just enjoy the picture . . . and don't worry about it blowing up even if Mae West comes on the screen!

If you need tube testing or tube cleaning for a brighter picture, call on our trained TV technicians. We have the service equipment and experience to solve your picture problems at DON HAGER'S TV & APPLIANCE, 11 W. Davis St., Arlington Heights. Phone CLearbrook 3-0700.

Des Plaines Car Dealer Beaten Up, Robbed By Two Bandits

Crime broke out in Des Plaines Monday night when the Moose Lodge lost two safes and a thousand dollars in cash and Herman Wolf of Westfield Motors was beaten up and robbed of a wallet containing $200.

It was Herman's effort to save the life of his son that resulted in a hand-to-had tussle during which two shots were fired. The bandits and car used answer the description of those who participated in a robbery in March on Higgins rd. when a service station man was killed.

The two bandits entered the Westfield Motors station about 10:45. As Mr. Wolf's 17 year old son entered, one of the robbers turned. Wolf struck the gunman's arm upward causing the bullet to hit the ceiling.

In the melee that followed Wolf received injuries that required 18 stitches on his head and he may have a broken nose.

The following day the First National Bank received a phone message warning that a robbery would take place at 6 o'clock that evening. As the bank is closed at that hour guards were placed at the First Federal Savings and Loan and at Des Plaines Savings and Loan but nothing happened.

Brides-to-be

George Schwartz, Arlington Heights, Joyce Brinkman, Palatine.

Edward Deffner, Madison, Wis., Wenonah Schumann, Des Plaines.

Northwest Group Protests Ready Mix Plant

A letter from the Northwest Betterment Association was read at the special meeting of the Arlington Heights village board Monday night which protested the building of the ready mix plant on Northwest hwy., on the site occupied by the Arlington Elevator and Coal company.

Main objections seemed to be the problem of traffic when the plant was in operation, the cleaning and washing out of the vehicles used to haul the ready mix, and the problem of cement dust, which the association felt would be prevalent in such an operation.

THE REPORTER contacted George Schneberger, on whose property the plant is being erected, and he assured this paper that he had received the State's approval regarding ingress and egress to the plant, and they will use a merging traffic system, which should not create a traffic hazard.

He further stated that the cement, gravel and water is poured directly from the hopper into the trucks and there is no possibility of cement dust seeping out to cover the town. Trucks used to haul the ready mix will be stored and cleaned elsewhere than on the property.

Before entering into this expansion program Schneberger had explained the process to the village board and had received its approval.

The letter from the Betterment association urged the board to investigate the problem and asked them to exercise the discretion that the people of Arlington Heights are counting on. The letter said its only aim was to keep the town a fine and desirable place in which to live. The board took the matter under advisement until the regular meeting Tuesday night.

$100 Dinner Tickets To Aid Fund Drive For Proposed Hospital

The Niles Township Community Hospital Association has been working diligently the past six months and according to William W. Barry, secretary of the association, the hospital is to become a reality.

Papers for the proposed site, which will be located on 20 acres of ground on Waukegan rd., 700 feet south of Dempster, have been signed and the architect to design the building has been employed. Brancik Conte and Associates of Michigan ave., Chicago, are the architects.

Extensive surveys have been made in the area, which extends from Lincolnwood to Arlington Heights and takes in 13 communities, and Barry says there is no doubt in the committee's mind that it could raise from $750,000 to $1,000,000 in a fund raising campaign in the area. A professional fund raising organization has been employed to do this job.

The kick-off for this campaign will be a dinner at Allgauer's restaurant in Lincolnwood, set for September 16. Dinner will cost $100 per plate and the restaurant will hold 350 persons.

Tickets will be on sale beginning the end of this week and an added incentive to those attending will be a gift of a new Lincoln to some lucky patron.

Barry said the proposed hospital would contain 100 beds to begin with, each bed costing from $18,000 to $20,000, and the total hospital costing nearly $2,000,000. Part of the hospital is to be financed through federal aid.

Expect Fall Fund Drive To Assure Educational TV

A fall campaign to raise the remaining $360,000 needed to establish and maintain a non-commercial, educational television station on Channel 11 will begin September 19.

Approximately 85 city and suburban communities are being organized for this intensive drive, which is expected to achieve the remainder of the $800,000 goal of the public fund drive.

Channel 11's home will be the Manley Trade and Vocational School, located at 2935 W. Polk st. The station's yearly budget will be $300,000. This comparatively low sum is figured on the basis that Channel 11 will broadcast only about 30 hours per week and that much of the time and material will be donated. The station will be sustained like an art institute or a symphony—by contributions.

Palatine Police Recover Two Arlington Bikes

Two Arlington Heights boys were made happy last week by the return of their bicycles. Good detective work on the part of Palatine police brought about their recovery. Identity was established by the license plates that the bikes bore.

They were stolen from Arlington Heights swim pool July 24 and recovered July 26. Police are now working on a third theft. Boys are making a practice of dismanteling bikes stolen and selling the accessories to other bike owners.

The two bikes taken were both English makes. They belonged to Gordon Andrus, 830 S. Mitchell, and Lee Durko, 129 S. Highland.

Healthy Trees Stymie Insect 'Fifth Column'

A strong defense is sometimes your tree's best offense in the fight against destructive insect pests.

A major menace to all trees is the ruthless boring insect, often the Public Enemy No. 1 of the insect world. Borers have a special liking for weak and ailing trees.

An ounce of prevention against borers, says Martin L. Davey Jr., head of the Davey tree experts, is worth incalculable pounds of cure.

The borer often can be discouraged by keeping trees in high vitality or by restoring them to high vitality as quickly as possible. Primarily, this calls for proper feeding, watering and other care needed to promote better arboreal health.

During these hot days, feeding is one of the most essential procedures. Davey experts have found that augmenting the tree's natural diet helps it weather depleting arid summer months. Researchers have shown that a special tree food high in nitrogen content helps trees resist the effects of water scarcity.

Drought weakened trees are the favorite sanctuaries of many borers. They burrow their way inside trunks and limbs where they can't be reached by poison sprays and other dislodging attempts.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

The attempt to slip Federal aid to education through Congress by earmarking for education all federal revenues that may be received from oil resources in the submerged lands which are out beyond state jurisdiction was killed when the house-senate conference committee on H.R. 5134 agreed to strike this provision which had been added to the bill by senate amendment.

One of the longest and toughest fights at the recent Illinois general assembly was to hold the line against new or increased property taxes without referendum for the various local governments. The fight began in February with the introduction of bills to increase school taxing power and didn't end until June 22 when a bill was defeated in the Senate to remove downstate forest preserve districts from the Hodge-Downing tax limit laws.

Only two bills authorizing increased property taxes without referendum downstate were enacted that were opposed by the taxpayers, and one of these was amended to cut down substantially the amount of increased taxing power.

H.B. 84, as introduced, would have meant a possible tax increase in building fund tax rates in school districts with outstanding bonds as high as 12½c per $100 of value in grade, high school, and community unit districts; as high as 6¼c in other unit districts. H.B. 84 was amended to limit the building fund tax rate increase without referendum to not more than 3¼c for grade and high school districts, to not more than 3½c for unit districts. The taxpayers' federation amendment, allowing no increase without referendum, was defeated in the house by only three votes—65 to 62—despite endorsement by the Illinois agricultural association of the other amendment. Divided we fall.

H.B. 83, which, as introduced, would have removed school districts from the Hodge-Downing tax rate limit laws, does not change existing school tax rate limits in any way as enacted. H.B. 94, giving community unit school districts power to build up a cash reserve in the building fund equal to 5% of assessed value, was amended to require a referendum, and the power of school districts to transfer from the building fund to the education fund was terminated. H.B. 135, to increase the tax that can be levied by non-high school districts from 50c up to $1.00 without referendum, was endorsed by the Taxpayers' Federation because the amount to be paid by the non-high school districts is determined by a formula, and inability to pay that amount can only result in higher tax burdens through bond interest costs. A Federation amendment to prevent building large cash balances was adopted.

Illinois commerce commission found in favor of Middle States telephone company on its request for a rate increase in Des Plaines and Park Ridge.

The company had previously reduced its requested rate increase from 14.4 per cent to 9.1 per cent. The case had been continued from earlier this year.

(Daniels Photo

St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, was the scene of the wedding August 8, of Miss Marlene Plant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Plant, E. Olive st., Arlington Heights, and Michael J. Montani, son of Mr and Mrs. Peter Montani of Mio, Mich.

The bride wore a white gown fashioned with a nylon lace bodice and a bouffant nylon tulle skirt with insert panels of nylon lace. Flower petals of tulle and pearls formed the square neckline. A juliet cap trimmed with flower petals held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotes with a white orchid center.

Miss Janet Killmer was the maid of honor. She wore a line gown of nylon net and tulle over taffeta, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias dyed to match her gown.

Mrs. Barbara Plant, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of coral nylon net and nylon tulle over pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of gardenias dyed to match her gown. All the attendants wore floral headpieces.

Miss Valerie Plant, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a pink nylon tulle gown and carried a basket of rose petals. Dennis Ricke, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

187 Attend Presbyterian School

Another vacation church school program at the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights was completed July 31. A total of 187 children were enrolled in this year's school.

Mrs. Enoch Jordon was the superintendent of 63 children in the beginners' department, while Mrs. Jack Schuler led 41 children who were enrolled in the kindergarten. These two groups brought offerings to the school to be used to purchase Bibles for migrant children. Twenty Bibles will be sent to Rev. William E. Scholes of the National Council of Home Missions, who will distribute the Bibles to migrant children.

In the primary department, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Hawley, the 60 children enrolled, studied shepherds of the Bible, and Navajo Indian shepherds. As their project, these children brought school supplies, games, and toys to send to the Navajo Indians. Five boxes of gifts have been sent to these people.

Twenty-three children were enrolled in the junior department, under the supervision of Mrs. Robert Phillips. Rev. Stuart Saul, associate minister of the church, taught Bible lessons in this group. As handcraft projects, these children made wooden letter holders and African masks.

Offerings were earned by these children and brought to the school to send to Mrs. Selden Turner, a missionary in Canoe, Ky. The children brought enough money for the purchase of three chairs for the Sunday school at this mission, where attendants at the Sunday school are now meeting under the trees. The boys and girls in the junior department also made scrapbooks to send to the mission.

Teachers at the vacation church school were: Miss Diane Alexander, Mrs. Richard Bardach, Mrs. Derek Barton, Mrs. Leon Breton Jr., Mrs. James E. Buck, Mrs. William Busch, Mrs. Frank Daniel, Mrs. Guy Davis, Miss Jan Davis, Mrs. Russell Deehring, Miss Lavonne Den Beste, Mrs. Ronald Ehrke, Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. Jack Hosford, Mrs. William Hull, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. William Lee, Mrs. John Ligon, Mrs. Howard Lips, Mrs. Stanley Olson, Mrs. W. Substitute teachers were Mrs. Baron, Mrs. Claude Bramlet, Mrs. R. W. Daeschner, Mrs. Charles Opela, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Joseph Wallace and Mrs. James Webster.

A nursery for young children of the teachers was conducted under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Bierma Jr., who was assisted by Mrs. James Peery, Mrs. William Cary and Mrs. Floyd Terbell.

People whoworked on publicity were Mrs. Dennis Malcolmson, Mrs. James Mazzei, Mrs. John McComb and Mrs. E. L. Mills.

Favorites for Flavor

By LOIS SEILER

Mrs. Frank Tribbey of 721 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, grew up with the recipe she is sharing with us today. This Butterscotch Pie is an old family recipe which was made regularly by Mrs. Tribbey's mother and has long been a favorite in the Tribbey household.

A delicious, tempting dessert, it can be made in one single pie crust or in 6 individual tarts. To make the individual tarts, double the pastry recipe printed below but use the same amount of filling.

This rich pie has a tender, flaky crust, a smooth butterscotch filling and a topping of whipped cream. The filling can even be made the day before it is to be served and it will never form a crust.

The good cook who is sharing this recipe with us is a member of the Catholic Woman's club of Our Lady of the Wayside church. She has three children: Catherine, 9, Johanna, 6, and Mary Alice, 3. The Tribbeys moved to Arlington Heights from Kaspar, Wyo., two years ago.

Butterscotch Pie

Pastry:

¾ cup flour
¼ cup lard
½ teaspoon salt
2 to 3 tablespoons water

Blend the flour, salt and lard together until like coarse cornmeal and add water. As soon as the dough holds together, roll out. Place in pie pan and bake about 10 minutes or less in 400 degree oven.

Filling:

1¼ cups light brown sugar
¼ cup dark brown sugar
6 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
2 egg yolks
4 tablespoons butter
½ teaspoon vanilla

Mix sugar and flour in top of double boiler. Add milk slowly. Cook, stirring until thick. Should the pudding curdle at any time during the cooking, immediately add butter.

Add slightly beaten egg yolks and cook three minutes longer. Remove from stove. Stir in the butter and vanilla.

When cool, pour into baked pie crust. Top with whipped cream.

Mesdames Hood, Poole, Rothenburger, Wessies, Petersen, Smith, Burnett and E. Wolf received the flags for intermediate troops 1, 3, 9, 12, 16, 20 and 21, respectively.

Joyce Brinkman Is Now Mrs. George Schwartz

(Community Camera

In a double ring, candlelight ceremony August 8, Miss Joyce Brinkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brinkman Sr., Rohlwing rd., Palatine, became the bride of George Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schwartz, 1136 Kensington rd., Arlington Heights.

Rev. Hilmar Th. Rosenberg officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony held at Immanuel Lutheran church in Palatine. Paul Leimer accompanied Dick Kroeger of Elgin, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Baskets of white gladioli and ferns decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina length gown of imported French chantilly lace over nylon tulle and bridal satin. The gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. The bride wore lace gauntlets and her nylon illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a satin headpiece trimmed with nylon tulle. A lace fan covered with white carnations, roses and stephanotis in a cascade effect formed the bride's bouquet.

Miss Joan Brinkman, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a coral strapless gown of nylon tulle over taffeta fashioned with a French chantilly jacket. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and coral gladioli.

Mrs. Claudette Schwartz, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Ann Marquardt, sister of the groom, were the bridesmaids. Their nile green gowns were identical to those of the maid of honor, and they also carried cascade bouquets of coral and yellow gladioli. All the attendants wore headpieces fashioned from canna lilies.

The bride's mother wore a golden brown glazed lace gown and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother, who was unable to attend because of illness, received a corsage of pink roses.

Earl Schinkowsky, brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man. Jimmy Lee Momany, cousin of the groom, and Clarence Brinkman Jr., brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held at the VFW clubhouse in Mount Prospect.

The young couple are honeymooning at the Wisconsin Dells, Cave of the Mounds and Devils Lake State Park and after August 15 will make their home at 18 E. Northwest hwy., apartment 6, Arlington Heights.

Woman's Auxiliary Entertain Old Folks At Lutheran Home

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged, Arlington Heights, held their annual picnic and potluck dinner for the residents of the Old Folks Home Thursday, August 6.

Nearly 300 ladies from the metropolitan churches affiliated with the Home also attended the picnic. Some of them came by chartered bus and included a tour of the new home nearing completion on Oakton st. as part of their outing. All of the residents of the Home received grab bag gifts from the Auxiliary and the Home as well as a picnic lunch out of doors and refreshments.

The Lutheran Sewing Group of Arlington Heights exhibited fancy goods in a booth. A swing bowling game was a new part of the fun this year and prizes were offered to the best bowlers. Mrs. Arthur Nimmer of Westchester, president of the Auxiliary, addressed the visitors in behalf of the Auxiliary, and the Rev. J. M. Kempf welcomed the visitors in behalf of the Home.

This was the last picnic to be held on the old grounds occupied by the Home on Northwest hwy. since 1892. Operation of the Home will be moved to the new building on Oakton st. late in October. The dedication of the new Home is scheduled for October 13, at 3:30 p.m.

Working Girls' Sorority Plans Hawaiian Tour

Miss Ruth Stobe, 1431 Wicke ave., Des Plaines, is local chairman for the Hawaiian "glamour tour" sponsored by Sigma Alpha Sigma, the national working girls' sorority, September 20.

The flight from workday routine to the land of frangipani, orchids, sugar plantations and the blue Pacific is made possible because the sorority, a non-profit group, budgets and makes long range plans for luxury vacations. By pooling their resources the "sisters" are able to travel with more economy and advantages than they could alone.

Leaving Chicago by train Sunday night, the girls will arrive in San Francisco Tuesday morning for a day of sightseeing and dinner at Fisherman's Wharf. They will leave the same evening by Pan American Strato-Clipper and arrive in Honolulu at dawn. They will stay at Moano hotel, Waikiki.

The holiday includes sunning and swimming on the beaches; luau festival dinners; dancing; sightseeing trips to the forest region of Mount Tantalus; to the "Forest of Giant Ferns; a flight to the island of Maui and spectacular Haloakala Crater; a Sea Garden boat trip; shopping in Honolulu; visits to sugar plantations, banana groves, a poi factory; a sea garden boat trip; shopping in Honolulu; and then an Aloha party and back to the states.

A trip to their grandparents' farm is in store for the smiling trio pictured first. Terry, Kathy and Donny Dragoo, children of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dragoo of 120 S. Benton, Palatine, are looking forward to visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Drake of Carlisle, Ind., and Mrs. M. C. Dragoo of Franklin, Ind.

Terry, who has brown eyes and is 4 years old, is very interested in animals, and 6½-year-old Kathy, who has blue eyes, is eagerly looking forward to entering second grade at the Palatine school this fall.

Little 2½-year-old Donny also has blue eyes, and possesses a good nature and happy countenance. He can talk in sentences. All three of the children attend Sunday school at the First Methodist church in Palatine.

Dorothy Mae was only 4½ months old when this picture was taken, and she is now 15 months old. She has blonde hair and blue eyes.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

God, Spirit, is seen or comprehended only through the spiritual senses. Therefore we should strive to cultivate faith, purity, honesty, meekness, and obliterate every evil sense. This will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 16. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be SOUL.

The Golden Text is from I Chronicles (22: 18,19) "Is not the Lord your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? . . . Now set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases . . . He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities . . . As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us" (Ps. 103: 2,3,10, 12).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Soul is immortal because it is Spirit, which has no element of self-destruction. Is man lost spiritually? No, he can only lose a sense material . . . It is a sense of sin, and not a sinful soul, which is lost. Evil is destroyed by the sense of good . . . Because Soul is immortal, Soul cannot sin, for sin is not the eternal verity of being" (pp. 311, 468).

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. If a bride is being married in a traveling dress, what should the bridegroom wear?

A. He wears an ordinary business suit, or one that is appropriate for traveling, with perhaps a little flower from the bride's corsage in his buttonhole.

Q. What type of stationery should be used by people in mourning?

A. White stationery of good quality is correct, and this now is generally preferred to black-bordered stationery.

Q. Should asparagus be eaten with the fingers?

A. No; it is ill-bred to take up this dripping vegetable with the fingers; it is properly eaten with the fork.

Q. When one receives a formal engraved invitation to some social affair, and is very busy, wouldn't it be all right to telephone the hostess one's acceptance or regrets?

Never. A formal invitation always requires an answer on note paper, acceptance or regrets being written in the third person.

Q. Is it necessary to write anything on the card that accompanies a wedding gift?

A. No; the card with your name on it is sufficient, as good wishes and congratulations are offered at the reception.

Q. Should the men be seated with their wives at a dinner party?

A. No. Married couples should always be separated at affairs of this kind.

Q. When a girl has been dining with a young man in a public place, and they are leaving the table, should she begin immediately to put on her coat which has been draped over the back of her chair?

A. No; she should wait either for her escort or the waiter to assist her.

Q. Who provides the boutonnieres for the best man and the ushers at a wedding?

A. The bridegroom.

Q. When a young married woman is introducing her unmarried sister to another person, does she refer to her sister merely as "Miss Johnson"?

A. The best procedure is to state the relationship, as, "Mrs. Harris, this is my sister, Helen Johnson."

Q. Is it proper to send gifts to the mother of a new-born baby?

A. Close friends will sometimes send flowers or candy to the new mother, but usually any gifts sent are for the baby. It is not absolutely necessary to send gifts, but it is considered nice.

LOOKING 'EM OVER?

This lean fellow eyes the newest summer fashion, polished cotton "pair-offs" by Stephanie Koret of California. Solid colored, glazed cotton is combined with a floral print for a versatile summer sun fashion. The flared print skirt has a slightly shirred back, while the solid colored corsolet is boned and side-laced. Solid and print combinations are popular this summer, National Cotton Council fas' 'orists report.

Painter Breaks Back After 14-Foot Fall

William H. Hicks, Barrington painter and decorator, suffered a broken back in a 14 foot fall when scaffolding broke while he was spraying a building on the Wadsworth W. Wood place on West County Line road. He landed in a sitting position and fractured the second vertebra.

Doctors have assured the family that his condition is satisfactory and that he should make a complete recovery.

About Your Health

Everyone is familiar with the term slipped disc. Actually the term is not an accurate one because the disc does not slip, but ruptures.

The spine is made up of vertebra which are hard, bony structures and which, in combination, serve to support the trunk on the pelvis. In between each vertebra is a disc, which is a soft, spongy material, that allows the spine to move. Because of its location, the disc is known as the intervertebral disc. Actually it serves as a shock absorber to jarring, pressure or sudden changes of movement It can be compared to the shock absorber of an automobile.

MOST COMMON areas where the discs of the spine are apt to become dislodged or injured are in the lower back or lumbar region, and in the neck or cervical region. The lumbar region, however, is the more commonly affected because it is subject to considerable stress and strain, since the entire weight of the upper body rests on the framework forming the lumbar area.

The disc between each vertebra is made up of several parts. The surface area is composed of strong, fibrous tissues which helps to confine the softer spongy material located between the vertebra. The spongy material is called nucleus pulposus.

When any condition occurs which produces sufficient strain, the confining ring tears, thus allowing the softer material to ooze out into the spinal canal. The term "slipped disc" takes its name from the oozing out process. Medically the condition is called herniation of the nucleus pulposus or ruptured disc.

SINCE A NERVE root comes out of the spine at each intervertebral area, the disc material, in the process of rupture, may press on the nerve root causing symptoms of low back pain and pain in the leg.

Although the ruptured disc is sometimes found in young adults, it occurs more often in the age group from twenty-five on. While there is no actual evidence, there does seem to be some relationship to the normal aging process of the body.

Microscopic examination of the disc itself reveals it to be made up of interlacing strands of fibrous tissue. These are sturdy and elastic in nature, giving the disc the support it needs to sustain the vertebra and body weight. In childhood this material has a high fluid content and is quite elastic. As we grow older, the fluid content decreases and, as in other tissues, the fibrous tissue of the disc loses some of its elasticity. In the normal process of aging, some of these fibers begin to degenerate and fray, resulting in a weakening of the normal supporting mechanism.

Cut in Appropriations to Save Citizens $108 Each

Individuals and businesses in Illinois will save an estimated $947,520,000 in federal taxes as a result of the $12.6 billion cut in appropriations by the administration and congress from initial budget proposals made last year.

This cut amounts to a saving of $108.76 to every man, woman and child in the state.

Federal spending in 1954 would total $72 billion, which is $6.6 billion below the $78.6 billion estimate of January, 1953.

Indians Had Lake Level Troubles Back In 4500 B.C.

That problem of shifting lake levels, so acute for several years to shore property owners in Chicago and suburbs, as well as communities all along the Great Lakes, was troublesome to Indian dwellers in this area as far back as 6,000 years ago! What's more, the modern shifts in level are minor compared to what the aboriginal inhabitants had to cope with. Today the average variation from summer to winter level is about one foot.

Government records indicate the lowest level, reached in 1926, was only about 4½ feet below the highest level, reached in 1952.

But somewhere between 5500 and 4500 B. C. when little-known prehistoric Indiana tribes inhabited its shores, the waters of Lake Michigan dropped to a level more than 350 feet lower than that of today.

George I. Quimby, curator of anthropological exhibits at Chicago Natural History Museum, traces the wide variations in water level that occurred from about 6500 to 1000 B. C. The Indian tribes on the shores of Lake Huron had worse time than those in the ago area—there, at about 5 to 4500 B. C. the water dropped at least 420 feet, or 70 feet more than Lake Michigan.

The Water Work and Sewerage Ordinance of November 9, 1951 provided for the establishment of several fund accounts, as follows:

(a) Operating and Maintenance Account— During 1952/53, $47,748.54 was transferred to this account. This amount was insufficient to pay all charges and a deficit of $6,065.23 resulted. The monthly transfers for 1953/54 should be in an amount to cover estimated expenses for the month.

(b) Interest and Principal Sinking Fund Account— The annual amount to be set aside from water and sewer income to retire bonds and interest coupons, is specified in the ordinance. The amount for 1952/53 so specified was $21,900.00, which was set aside in this fund.

(c) Bond and Interest Reserve Account This is a sinking fund and the ordinance requires deposit of $500.00 monthly in this fund as a reserve to be used to pay for bonds and interest when due should the Interest and Principal Sinking Fund be deficient. This account is to be built up to carry a maximum balance of $36,000.00.

(d) Contingencies and Depreciation Account— This too is a sinking fund and the ordinance requires deposit of $500.00 monthly in this fund as a reserve to be used for "repairs and replacements to the system necessitated by an emergency" and to pay bonds and interest should no other funds be available for that purpose. This account is to be built up to carry a maximum balance of $45,000.00.

The number of properties connected with the system of April 30, 1953, was approximately 3,178. The number of meters in operation April 30, 1953 was 3,178. The number of unmetered customers, none. There are 12 sewerage customers who do not receive water service.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets, operating and fund statements present fairly the financial position of the VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS, at April 30, 1953, and the results of its operations for the year then ended together with an accounting for all funds (except special assessment accounts), in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,
E. F. Laurin and Associates

The municipal balance sheets carrying such items as fixed assets in land and buildings, department equipment, depreciation, etc., not directly involved in operational and bank reconciliations and other voluminous detail have been omitted from this publication for space saving reasons.

The Laurin audit comprising some thirty-six pages of condensed information has been accepted by the village board of trustees after careful study upon recommendation of the finance committee as representing a true and accurate portrayal of the financial condition of the municipal corporation for the period involved. Copies of the Laurin audit may be examined by interested parties in the village office.

PUBLICATION BY DIRECTION OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Campus Capers

At DeKalb

Northern Illinois state teachers college conferred degrees on 118 candidates Thursday in summer commencement exercises held in the college auditorium. This brings the total number of degres conferred by Northern in June and August, 1953, to 439, the highest in the school's history.

The guest speaker at the program was Marvin L. Berge, assistant superintendent of schools at Elgin, whose address was entitled, "Education for What is Real."

At Culver

Midshipman Dale W. Johnson from Arlington Heights is a member of the Culver military academy summer school glee club which will present "The Testament of Freedom" by the American composer, Randall Thompson, at 8:30 o'clock, Sunday evening, August 16, in the campus memorial chapel.

"The Testament of Freedom," consisting essentially of four passages from the writings of Jefferson, was composed in commemoration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson.

Midshipman Johnson is the son of Charles L. Johnson, 626 S. Belmont ave., Arlington Heights.

At Wittenberg

Dr. W. C. Nystrom, dean of Wittenberg college, Springfield, O., has announced that Marjorie Payne, 709 S. Ioka ave., Mount Prospect, has been awarded a Lynch scholarship at the college for the coming year.

According to the college catalog the $50,000 Lynch fund provides scholarships to "Lutheran young men and young women of superior ability and promise." High scholastic attainment and good college citizenship are considered.

Should Check Earnings With Security Office

The most important thing a person can do to protect his insurance rights under the social security act is to make sure his social security account number is recorded correctly on reports of his earnings, Mrs. Hilda E. Eidman, manager of the Oak Park social security field office, said.

She pointed out it is advisable for a person to compare the account number shown on his own records, such as payroll receipts, tax withholding statements, his self-employment income tax return, etc., with the number shown on his social security account-number card. If there is a discrepancy, he should get it corrected; otherwise he may not receive all the social security credit he should for such earnings, Mrs. Eidman explained.

AN INDIVIDUAL'S own personal records of earnings are of increasing importance, Mrs. Eidman said, because of a feature in the law, known as "regularity of employment tests." These tests apply in cases of employment on farms and in domestic households. Work must have been performed on a certain number of days and a certain amount paid in cash wages in a given period in order for these wages to be covered by the law.

So, in the event a wage earner does not agree with the amount reported for him, it will be much easier to establish whether he has a right to such credit if he has his own records of time worked and wages paid.

A WORKER may check on the status of his social security at any time. He should do so at least once every three years. If he does not agree with the amounts shown, he should take his own records and the statement to the nearest social security administration field office for assistance in getting the account reconciled. A simple post card form for requesting such a statement is available in any social security field office, Mrs. Eidman declared.

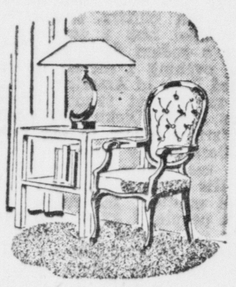
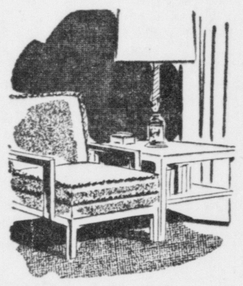
FURNITURE GROUPING LACK HARMONY!

When two or more pieces that are unrelated in size, style and overall feeling are used to form groupings, much of the effectiveness of the individual pieces, as well as that of the group as a whole, is lost. This is the mistake that is most commonly made when composing chair - and - table groups.





ENHANCE EACH PIECE . . .

. . . AND the group by teaming units that complement each other in size, and that are comparable in style and feeling. Chair-side table should be the approximate depth of its companion chair, and about the same height as the chair arms. In a two-chair-and-table group, use a table large enough to serve both seating units.

Let me say a few words about "rumor," which is often a handmaiden to propaganda, especially as employed by our enemy in the last war. The third definition of rumor in the dictionary, which is, "a story current but not authenticated" is the one I have in mind, because I have a postscript on a rumor that swept this territory recently. I'm referring to the one about the little girl who had been bitten by a snake while riding a merry-go-round in an amusement park. Some days ago I was among those present at a luncheon in Glenview, where one of the guests enlightened us on how the rumor was started. It's the explanation many of us, perhaps, had thought of, especially after this newspaper ran an item stating that a check with all hospitals had proved that no snakebite death showed on any hospital or medical records in Chicago and suburbs. The rumor was started by a rival amusement park concern, we were told, though by the time the story had made its rounds no one can name at this point, I am sure, the park where the alleged snakebite occurred.

Apropos of snakes, one fell into our basement window-well several weeks ago. A thick branch made a ladder for him to escape by, and I watched him disappear into an old gopher hole in our garden. He took an outing some days later, as I saw him going home in the evening, but since then he has proven an elusive tenant. (I don't label him a squatter as he is a rodent destroyer.) The other evening I picked up my Oxford Book of American Verse, and reading at random, came across Emily Dickinson's poem, "A Narrow fellow in the grass . . . Occasionally rides; You may have met him—did you not? . . . His notice sudden is . . . (3 verses omitted) Several of nature's people, I know and they know me: I feel for them a transport, Of cordiality . . . But never met this fellow, Attended or alone, Without a tighter breathing, And zero at the bone." That last line is brilliant, methinks, since it so perfectly describes one's sensation upon meeting that narrow fellow in the grass, a garden snake . . . A different recipe is this one, enjoyed at Pat McCartney's table one evening, which she passed on to me. She credits Gourmet with this one. So if you want to end a dinner on an exotic note, try White Pelican Daiquiri Pie. Beat 3 egg yolks creamy, add 1 can sweetened condensed milk, 1/3 cup fresh lime juice, and 2 tablespoons dark rum. Beat until smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten whites of 3 eggs, turn filling into an 8 or 9-inch baked pie shell, and sprinkle lightly with nutmeg. Bake pie in a slow, 300 deg. oven for 8 to 10 minutes. Cool and chill in refrigerator. Use your favorite piecrust for this recipe.

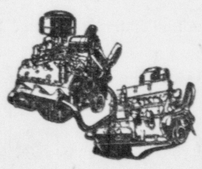
In every way, more car for your money!

Ford gives you V-8 power like that of costly cars . . . fine car build . . . fine car ride and "at-home-everywhere" good looks - but the price tag never moves out of the low-price field

Everywhere you go people are making the swing to Ford. And can you blame them? Many cars costing over $1000 more offer no more of the things you need and want. Here are some of Ford's "Worth More" features . . . but to get the full Ford "Worth More" story, Test Drive a new Ford today!

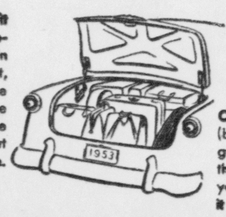
Less front-end road shock. The kind of shock you feel most is reduced up to 80% with Ford's new ride. You get a smoother, more balanced, more comfortable ride all around!

Suspended pedals are designed to work easier and make foot space of your Ford's entire floor area. Suspended pedals are also a "keep out" sign to dirt and drafts . . . make it easier to keep the floor cleand



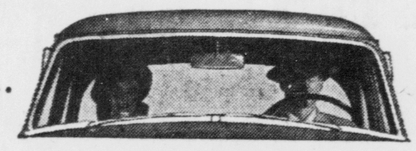
Smooth V-8 power is exclusive to Ford in its field. And Ford's Mileage Maker is the most modern Six you can own! Both the V-8 and Six-cylinder power plants deliver their hill-leveling "go" on regular gas—and not much of that, thanks to Ford's Automatic Power Pilot!

An extra suitcase will fit into Ford's luggage compartment—the roomiest in the low-price field. In fact, Ford's combined luggage and passenger space is the greatest in the low-price field . . . compares with that of many cars of higher price.



Center-Fill Fueling permits filling your Ford from either side . . . saves you time when refueling . . . and puts an end to hose scratches on your fender!

Curved one-piece windshield (below) and large picture windows, give Ford the most "look out" area in the low-price field . . . another reason your Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!



See it . . . Value Check it . . . Test Drive it . . .

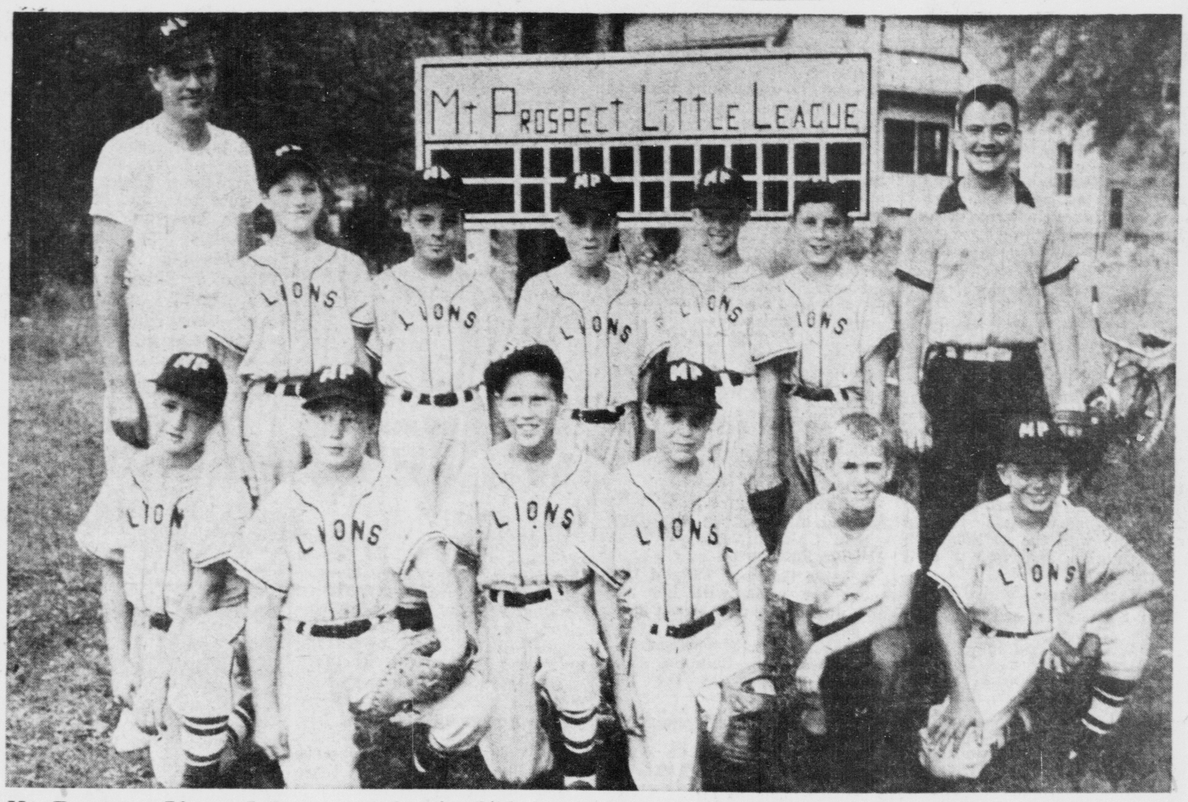
"Jail Bait" is the name Cole of California gives this siren swim suit in prisoner stripes of black and white cotton. It has a new deep-diving halter neckline and a low-cut back. The girl who wears this attention-getting cotton suit is going to make a splash on any beach this summer!



Mt. Prospect Lions club sponsored the other Little League baseball team in Mt. Prospect this summer. Members of the Northwest Suburban Little League, the squad recently completed its schedule.

Pachydermic pet of the nation, Miss Burma, long a favorite of the sawdust world for her astonishing performing versatility, this year has been catapulted into international prominence on another count. With her four-and-a-half ton salute to President Eisenhower in the historic Washington Inaugural Parade, carried to millions by press, television and radio, she captured the nation's fancy and has become by far the most celebrated elephant in the world today.

Miss Burma will pay a special visit to Palatine Friday, August 21 when the Chamber of Commerce and Fire Department raising money for their welfare funds, brings the famous Mills Bros. Three Ring Circus to the Palatine circus grounds for 2 and 8 p. m. performances. Members of the sponsoring organizations already have launched their campaign through which advance tickets, at reduced prices and producing heaviest help to their local campaign, are now available from members.

Queenly Miss Burma, who reaches her 41st birthday this Summer, lent her considerable weight to the old adage that "Life Begins at 40" by being selected last September as first official national GOP mascot. On January 20 of this year, accompanied by two "dainty" ladies-in-waiting from Mills Bros.' 40-ton herd, Lena and Jenny, she was honored to march, as mascot, in the history-making Washington Parade. A favorite with surging crowds all along the parade route, she saved her cutest stunt most appropriately for the White House. Stopping there, as thousands of TV home-watchers well recall, she curled her trunk over her head, majestically raised a ponderous foot, and gave President Eisenhower, Vice President Nixon and other dignitaries a four-and-a-half ton Inaugural Salute, as pictured above. Other poses show her leading the full herd, teaming in a center-act, and parading with her Parade mates in their festive Inaugural tops. Imported arenic stars from 18 countries, plus trained animals and all sawdustland's cherished elements are featured with this year's edition of Mills Bros. Circus, the world's largest motorized three-ring organization.

More Women Than Men in Des Plaines

A breakdown of the July 1 official census shows there are 361 more women than men in Des plaines. Women total 10,512 to 10,151 men.

There were 5,807 dwelling units here as of July 1.

Of the 20,663 population, the census takers listed 15 non-whites, 11 of whom are male.

Another tie resulted in the Inter-League golf tourney last year when Lingren's Men's Wear of the Arlington Heights league and Busse Motors of Mt. Prospect Wednesday league tied at 295.

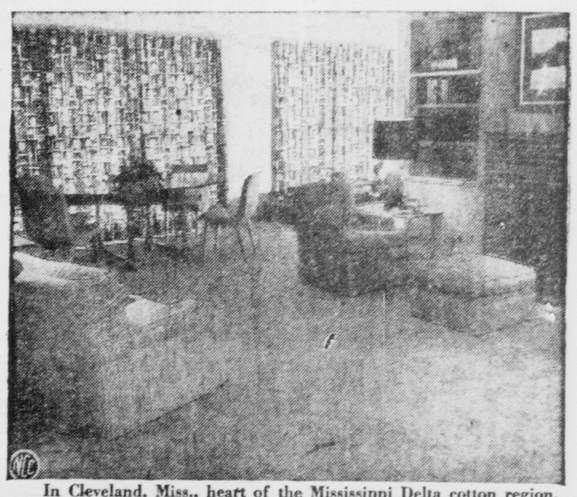
Mrs. William Kastning, 23 N. Pine, Arlington Heights, is the proud possessor of a new Westinghouse frost free refrigerator, which she won in the oldest refrigerator contest sponsored by Rhodes Appliances of Arlington Heights. Ralph Faulkner, store manager, is shown presenting Mrs. Kastning with the new box. The contest opened several weeks ago and in order to compete, one had to submit the date of the refrigerator they were still using, the winner to be the oldest one in the area. Mrs. Kastning had purchased her GE refrigerator in 1926 and she was still using it with good results

Lovely Pat Hall, Tucson, has been selected Arizona's 1953 Junior Maid of Cotton. Seventeen-year-old Pat is a brownette, 5 feet 5 inches tall. She was chosen from a group of teen-age beauties.



In Cleveland, Miss., heart of the Mississippi Delta cotton region, the new home of Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Ringold is decorated completely in cotton. Pictured here is the Z-shaped living-dining room area. Art-loom wall-to-wall carved cotton carpeting is used for floor covering. The chairs are covered in cotton tweed upholstery fabrics. The draperies are cotton in a modern design interpreting Early American curios. Even the lampshades are cotton chambray. The house was decorated by Russell Wilson of Arthur Seelbinder's, Memphis, Tenn.

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

FRIDAY NIGHT one of the biggest sporting events of the summer season is coming up at Soldier Field in Chicago in the All-Stars vs. Detroit Lions football game. The edge, as usual, is accorded the pro champs who have played together enough to work as a unit. From this standpoint the All-Stars are always an uncertain quantity. They have the spirit and enthusiasm and individual ability, but may not function up to the necessary standard as a team.

The All-Stars seldom have a well coordinated running attack and rely, as do most pro teams, to quite an extent on passes. In Scarbath, Samuels, and O'Connell the All-Stars have three outstanding quarterback passers who may help give the Lions a good ball game.

Noticeably lacking in this year's All-Star team are players from the Big Ten and Middle West due to the fact that most of the colleges graduated few outstanding men. This means football in this area should be improved this year over last. Regardless of the odds against the All-Stars on paper, the fans will be for them and against the pros. We shall be there as another of the throng of 100,000 pulling for the collegians to win.

WHEN THEY PICK the greatest individual plays of all time in the history of sports the feat of Lew Worsham in sinking an approach shot from 130 yards to win $25,000 on the final hole of the 72 hole Tam-O-Shanter Worlds Championship tourney will have to be considered. It is certainly the best golf shot ever scored.

An eagle two on a 410 yard hole is most unusual, let alone when the player has to do it to take first in the biggest money tournament of all time.

And then May announced that next year's first prize will be $50,000. The Tam owner certainly believes in rewarding the present golfers.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL practice opens August 31 under the state rules and that is only a little over two weeks away. The Northwest conference will be stronger in the gridiron sport this year with most of the schools having the majority of their best boys returning.

Palatine's defending champs will have the fewest lettermen, but has good boys coming up from strong sophomore and freshmen teams of a year ago.

We understand Ela-Vernon, rated to have one of the strongest football teams, will not open school until October, due to construction of a school which requires remodeling of the old plant. This work will not be completed until October and, meanwhile, neither part of the building is ready for use.

RALPH STEBEN, former track coach at Wauconda and now at Bloom, is number one man in a big summertime playground track and field meet at Chicago Heights . . . Hundreds of "big names and little guys" are slated to compete in three to twelve events in six age groups . . . No wonder Bloom often develops outstanding track performers . . .

In a recent appearance at St. Charles Jackie Robinson asserted 'this is my last year in baseball" . . . Boasting a .318 major league average, he's currently hitting .325 for sixth in the National loop . . .

Elongated center Tony Davis of Danville Schlarman couldn't make entrance requirements at Seton Hall, switched to Indiana, but is still susceptible to offers . . . Six foot seven inch George Bon Salle of Chicago Catholic league fame has picked Illinois, giving the Illini a "tall man" for basketball one year hence . . . Ray Eliot was featured program on last week's football coaching clinic at DeKalb . . .

YORK HAS THE PROBLEM of where to play its football games this year since work has been started on an addition to the rear of the present building . . . If the addition to the front is started in the next 14 weeks, the games will have to be played on the practice field on St. Charles road . . . For the first time in history a baseball game was postponed because a volcano erupted (in Alaska) . . . Howie Judson, recently with the White Sox, is now with Tulsa . . .

For the first time since the Big Ten dropped to the "Big Nine" there will be no changes in head football coaches within the league as the loop again becomes the "Big Ten" . . .

There's more than one way to speak to an umpire . . . Player out east is being given a lie detector test to determine whether he vented his feelings with saliva at the official in a close game . . .

ARLINGTON'S FOOTBALL hopefuls, who open the season at Barrington September 19, have a 3-1-1 mark against the Broncos . . . The Cardinals were held to a scoreless tie in 1945, won 38-0 in '46, 27-6 in '47, 19-0 in '48 . . . Barrington won in 1950, 13-7 . . .

Proof that being eligible for the Inter-League golf tournament doesn't make you champion was borne out last week when both leaders of Mt. Prospect golf leagues, Kruse Schlitz and Busse Motors were unceremoniously dropped to third and second places . . . Kruse is now two points out, Busse three-and-a-half.

To Meet Friday Night

Palatine House league, competing at Hi-Way Recreation, will hold its annual organizational meeting Friday, August 21, at 8 p.m. at the bowling alleys.

Engineers Take Wednesday Golf Lead; Motors 2nd

First place in the Wednesday division of the Mount Prospect twilight golf league changed hands again last Wednesday as Barclay-Clearbrook Engineering supplanted Busse Motors as holder of the top position. The Engineers fabricated a beautiful 9½ to ½ victory over the once invincible Mount Prospect State Bank team to take an impressive 3½ point league lead while the Motor boys continued their current slump and absorbed a 2 to 8 defeat at the hands of Kirchhoff Insurance, which dropped them into second place. Could be that Busse Motors are saving their good shots for the Paddock tournament.

Meanwhile Busse-Bierman Hardware captured 10 points in a clean sweep victory over Moler's Barber Shop to move from fifth into undisputed possession of third place.

Honors for "round of the week" went to Art Skelton of Van Driel's drugs. A class C player, Red fashioned a gross 38 net 31 over the tough second nine. Skelton birdied the 13th hole. Other birdies: Tony Colosimo, No. 3; H. Patheal, 12; Beast Ball and Carl Oscarson, 13; Lou Brabec, 13 and 18, Bob Hornbostel, 13 and 15.

In the back are Ed Linneman and Doug Winkelmann.

Bob Dotts Homers To Win 2nd Title For Heights Legion

Lew Worsham's $25,000 130 yard golf shot was forgotten Tuesday night in Recreation park when Bob Dotts homered with two on to give the Arlington Heights Junior Legion baseball entry the second half championship. Heights won over Franklin Park, 6-3.

The local nine had previously won the first half championship. Second half title last year was also copped by the Poole Fords, making three firsts in a row for the baseball enthusiasts.

Arlington was slated to meet Evanston Wednesday night at Recreation park in the second half county playoffs. Winner would play at Oak Park Saturday in the semi-finals with the finals Monday at Oak Park.

DAVE RYDEN had been twirling for Coach Lloyd Meyer's nine, looking good but loading the bases with one out on three walks in that last fifth inning. Darkness was threatening.

Dotts switched from behind the plate to the mound. He permitted Novak to reach first but caught Walberg at the plate. He walked Vassler, scoring Lueth with the leading run, then fanned O'Connor.

For Arlington Harrington walked and Randy Thomas was called in to run. Thomas stole second and went to third on a wild pitch. Roger Thomas was out to the infield and Ted Bakalar reached first on an error.

AFTER JACK SIEBURG popped to the pitcher, Wayne Hesch hit safely, scoring Randy Thomas with the tying run.

Then came Dotts with that all-important homer, the game was over, and Arlington had the second half championship in the bag.

Only league loss for the Poole Fords in either half was to Northlake, 4-3, Wednesday, August 5.

ARLINGTON had taken a back seat in the first frame when an error and two hits scored two runs for the visitors. The locals came back with walks to Verret and Lemke and a hit by Harrington to tie the tally.

Previously last week Heights had disposed of Mount Prospect, 7-5, in spite of a big five run second inning for the losers.

The Poole Fords lost to Northlake Wednesday night of last week, 4-3. The visitors took the lead on a dropped fly ball and a wild throw to second, but Heights came back with one run on a hit and an error, walk and stolen base.

NORTHLAKE came back with a walk and a hit to go ahead, 2-1. In the sixth Verret hit to center field and Ryden singled past third. He was trapped when Fischer was on base on a fielder's choice. Northlake tallied twice in the seventh to win the contest.

Mount Prospect's big blast against Heights Saturday started after Caltigrone grounded out. Lynk doubled and three errors scored him and pushed Fletcher around. Riggs walked and stole second. Winkelman also walked. Fischer hit with everyone scoring when Sauter tripled.

Mary Ann Brings More Golfing Glory To The McDonald Clan

Bob and Mike in the low 70s, Pat Jr., in the high 70s, Mary Ann in the low 80s, and Pearl in the high 80s. That is the story of the five sons and daughters of Rob Roy country club manager Pat McDonald.

Pat's playing days have given way to management duties at the club located just east of Prospect Heights. He's hired himself a pro to give instruction and has found time to play 18 holes just twice this summer, shooting a 76 and an 80.

THE FAMILY, however creates the time to play, with nineteen-year-old Mary Ann leading the way this summer.

Mary Ann just finished playing in the women's amateur division at Tam O'Shanter's world championship of golf, finishing tenth with scores of 84-87-92-92. In the All-American tournament at Tam a week earlier Mary Ann shot 86-95-87-95-92.

Mary Ann, weighing 128 and standing 5'6", has been playing golf since she was 11 years old, and enjoys it. She plays the game about four times a week, but always "when it's a little slow" in consideration of her dad's job.

A SOPHOMORE at Rollins college in the southland, Mary Ann was graduated from Arlington Heights high school in 1952. She is taking a liberal arts course at Rollins.

Only other tournament effort for her this year was the Illinois state women's amateur at Danville earlier this summer where she shot an 84 to qualify, then went to the quarterfinals in match play.

"There aren't enough women's tournaments going on," complained Mary Ann. She participated in George S. May's tournament in 1951, but failed to qualify. This year she looked good enough in the first event to be invited to play in the second.

MARY ANN'S brothers and sisters also like the game, but don't get too much opportunity for play.

Youngest is 14-year-old Bob who qualified for the recent state JC tournament, but had to drop out because of a dislocated shoulder suffered while swimming.

MARY ANN McDONALD

Then there's 23-year-old Mike who usually shoots near par 72. He lost Monday afternoon in the Chicago city amateur tourney at Jackson Park golf club.

Pat Jr., is now 20 and finds no time for tournament golf. Instead, he spends all of his hours helping dad at Rob Roy. Occasionally he gets out on the course, shooting in the high 70s.

Pearl, only other girl in the family, works during the day but gets in a little golf evenings and week ends now and then. She shoots in the high 80s.

Tri-City Ladies Golf

Tri-City Ladies golf league playing at Mount Prospect country club had "Blind Holes" as its special event, August 11. The winners: first nine, Eileen Serafine; second nine, Fyrne Gran.

Arlington Legion To Play All-Stars Sunday At Heights

It will be Arlington vs. All-Stars Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Recreation park when the annual end-of-the-season all-star versus champs contest is played. The George C. Poole Fords won both first and second half championships in ninth district American Legion baseball competition.

Facing them will be the 20 boys selected from the other seven teams in the loop, including Roger Kolze and Tom Hillesheim from Palatine, and Doug Winkelmann, John Caltagirone and Ed Linneman from Mount Prospect.

Coaching the two teams will be Lloyd Meyer for the champions and Claud Bailey of Palatine for the all-stars.

LEADING HITTER of the all-stars will be Caltagirone with a .600 figure. He has hit safely nine times in 15 times at bat.

Leading pitcher is Tom Hillesheim of Palatine, who has posted a 5-2 mark in league play this summer.

Other heavy hitters for the all-stars include Jim Bledsoe of Park Ridge with .457, Bill Sherry of Franklin Park with .421 and Dusty Grisolia with .423.

FROM THE HEIGHTS standpoint, shortstop Charley Verrett is top hitter with a .340 mark, followed by Wayne Hesch with .326.

On the mound for Arlington there will be Dave Ryden (6-0), Mike Shanklin (6-4) and Bob Dotts who hasn't won or lost any games this year, but who was the big hero with the second half title winning home run Tuesday night.

Eight League Squads To Shoot For Honors In Sunday Tourney

It'll be Otto Anderson, Bob Lauthain, Dick Wistar and Lawrence Geils in the first foursome of Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament at Inverness country club Sunday, August 16. Tee off time is 12:30, though teams are requested to report in to tournament manager G. A. McElroy by 12:15.

Inverness country club has turned over the course for one hour with eight foursomes slated to tee off in order listed elsewhere on this page.

Two leagues are defending champions, Mount Prospect Tuesday (Whitton Realtors) and Rob Roy (Wulbecker Furniture). Whether they can repeat is debatable. Webber Paint of Rob Roy loop has the lowest team handicap of 50. Kruse Schlitz has 75.

ALL HANDICAPS have been computed on an equal basis for the eight squads. Eighty per cent of the difference between a player's average nine hole score and par for the course on which he plays, including fractions, has been multiplied by two to obtain the 18-hole figure.

All costs of the tournament have been paid. Greens fees of $2.50 per man have already been entered by league secretaries with additional expense of the tourney underwritten by Paddock Publications.

Up for grabs is another leg on the large traveling trophy, the 12 individual medals, and one dozen K-28 golf balls donated by Bensenville Sport 'N Work store for low individual net.

LOW MAN on individual handicap is Otto Anderson, one of six repeaters in this year's tournament. Otto has a 4 handicap for 18 holes. Ironically, none of the repeaters has ever been on a Paddock tourney championship team.

His team is also low with a 50 handicap. Second is Bensenville VFW league entry with 51 handicap.

For Webber Paint there'll be Anderson 4, Art Orwiller 6, Bill Burns 14, Joe Bodor 26. For Bensenville there'll be Capt. Ralph Steging 10, Lawrence Geils 10, Al Janwoski 12, Harvey Schultz 19.

A NEUTRAL COURSE was selected for the tournament this year, a difficult feat for a Sunday with all public courses having twilight leagues. Inverness country club consented to the event in deference to Paddock Publications and a concise, fast-moving tournament is desired to keep interruptions for regular Inverness members at a minimum.

Eight leagues competing include Men's Handicap at Arlington country club, Rob Roy and St. James at Rob Roy, Mount Prospect Tuesday and Wednesday, and Arlington Heights at Mount Prospect country club. Roselle loop at Glendale country club, and Bensenville VFW league at Mohawk.

First place teams of August 1 were eligible for the meet.

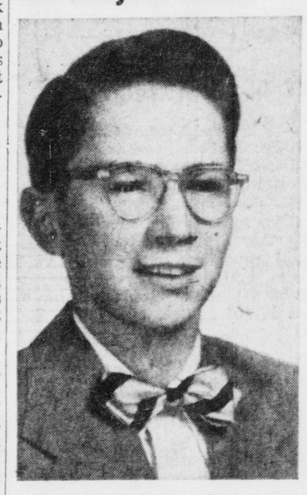
Palatine Caddy Master Wins Scholarship to University of Illinois



Richard Florey, caddy master at Inverness golf club and a 1953 graduate of Palatine township high school, has been awarded an "Evans scholarship" to the University of Illinois. This scholarship is based upon ranking in the upper quarter of the high school graduating class and recommendations of the high school principal and teachers and officials of the golf club where he has served as a caddy.

Established by "Chick" Evans a great amateur golfer of the past quarter century the award is given by the Western golf association to highly recommended caddies who need help in order to attend college. Florey will receive his tuition and room rental for all four years if he maintains satisfactory grades.

Florey, the first Palatine boy to win an Evans award, has worked at the Inverness club 7 years, of which 5 were as a caddy and the past 2 in the pro shop where he has also handled the assignment of caddies.

Palatine First

Looks like the folks out Palatine way are going to have the first dog show ever held in the township when September 13, the Airedale Terrior club of Illinois will hold a sanctioned match on the grounds of the Dr. and Mrs. J. Fleischmann home located on Ela rd. just south of Palatine rd.

Starting at 2 p.m. the match will before pure-bred Airedale Terriers and will have puppies and grown dogs competing for prizes. There will be class divisions for both trimmed and untrimmed dogs which will give the general public a good look at just how these large terriers appear when they are kept as general house dogs and also for show work.

The judge for the event will be the noted terrior breeder and owner Earl Woodward and from early reports it looks as if he will have a rather busy time. The general public has been invited with refreshments to be sold on the grounds, the proceeds from which will go towards the club's general trophy fund.

Dogs vs. Autos

Statistics claim there are 22 million dogs and 40 million cars in the United States today. These are startling figures. When you consider that both dogs and cars use the same streets, it is easy to realize how often the two meet.

By just being a little extra careful, you may save a dog's life . . . and someone's happiness.

Thanks from all the big and little dogs in the country who like to get out and enjoy the warm weather just as much as you do.

Dog Pictures

Help for those who would like to take better pictures of their or other's dogs, comes from the Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park ave., New York 17, N. Y.

The Center has just issued a booklet titled "Picture Your Dog"—available for the asking—which contains a wealth of information on taking photographs of dogs that are not only good, but good enough to win photo contest prizes. How to select locations, choose appropriate backgrounds, get natural effects and action shots of the pet at home, the sporting dog in the field, or even rollicking puppies, are among the subjects covered in this exceptional booklet, which also reproduces profusely photographs that have won prizes in contests to get across its many and varied helpful hints.

Barks and Bays

Will Rogers once said that if his dog had known how well he was bred, the dog wouldn't have spoken to him!

He added: "We have petted him, complained at him, called him a nuisance. But when we buried him yesterday, we couldn't think of a wrong thing he had ever done. His bravery was his undoing. He lost to a rattlesnake, but his face was toward it."

For Arlington Golf 2-Ball Foursome

A man-and-wife two-ball foursome for members and alternates of Arlington Heights Twilight Golf league will be held Sunday, August 23, at Arlington Country club. Tee off time is 2:45 p.m. This event is strictly a social one and is planned for fun only. There will be many prizes donated by sponsors who have been very generous to make the event a success.

The race for league leadership is now in the stretch with only three nights left to play. The standings indicate four teams in contention, possibly six, with only nine points separating the first place and the two tied-for-third five-somes. We feel the race to the finish will be interesting and won't be over until that last man is "out."

PINE'S MOTEL, sporting a 10½ point lead until Friday night, lost five points of that lead to second place Black's Memorial and now lead the latter by only 5½. Black's accomplished this big gain by taking nine from Lauterburg and Oehler plus being aided by Dunteman's, who took eight from Pine's.

York Tavern and Schiller Carpet remained tied for third place by taking eight each from Tody's Lounge and Arlington Bowling Lanes, respectively. Star for Tody's was Chuck Kleinofen who went around the back nine in a cool 36-3-33, good for three of the four points earned by his team.

JAHN'S CITIES SERVICE and Arlington Bowling have been see-sawing back and forth in and out of last place, giving the impression each is desperate to take the booby prize. The Bowling Lanes five are 7½ points in the cellar now, thus our selection to finish in that spot.

Standings:

'Near Winners' to Have Big Chance at Soldier Field Stock Car Races

An action-packed program of stock car races is designed for the fans in Soldier Field Wednesday and Sunday nights as the tempo increases and the pace for positions among the leaders grows faster and more hard fought.

Beginning with the three sprint races in which the enlarged fields of cars and drivers battle for a starting position in the double features that bring to a close the eight race program, there will be excellent driving mixed with destruction and demolition sure to occur in the stock car dog race, the forward-backup event and the Australian Tag.

Ernest Lohndorf of 18 S. Linden st., Palatine, had a good catch of red and black grouper while fishing out of the new Marina on Clearwater Beach, Florida.

Wheeling All-Stars Lose in Tournament

Wheeling's all star Little League team played in a tournament at Highwood this past week-end. Saturday night they beat the Chicago Elks Braves, 3-0, behind Ted Bartmann's one-hit pitching performance.

Sunday night Wheeling met the Highwood team and lost, 10-2. Wheeling held a 2-0 lead starting the fourth inning after which Highwood took advantage of a few breaks, coupled with timely hitting to tally seven runs.

Monday night Wheeling played its third game for third place, but lost to Mount Prospect Merchants, 4-3. It was a good game and gave the fans many thrills.

Redwings Beat Firemen, 5-2

Arlington Redwings won their ninth victory against four defeats Sunday when they gained revenge over the Chicago Firemen, 5-2. The city slickers had previously beaten "our boys" 4-2. Both games were played at Recreation park.

This Sunday the Redwings journey to LaGrange to play Cole Lenzi starting at 3 p.m.

Cole Lenzi field is located on East ave., east of Mannheim rd., just off route 66. Fans wishing to follow the team can drive down route 45 and turn east on route 66 to East ave.

THE REDWINGS took an early lead when Gail Bach of Mount Prospect singled and scored on a hit by Bob Spinks. The firemen tied it up in the fourth on two hits and an error.

Spinks hit for the second time in the home half of the fourth, stole second, and scored on a long fly.

Once again the Chicagoans tied it up in the seventh on a walk and a hit. But Wille's homer the same frame put the Redwings back in front, 3-2.

IN THE EIGHTH, hits by Connie Hernbrott and Paul Stange, a walk to Spinks, fly ball and a hit by Wille tallied two more for the locals. Bill Stretton went all the way on the mound for the Redwings.

Palatine Loses To Tri-R Signs, 3-2

Palatine's softball team suffered a 3-2 defeat at the hands of Tri-R Signs of Des Plaines Sunday night under the lights at Palatine. The locals' sloppy fielding and inability to hit slow pitching cost Palatine the contest.

The local's heavy hitters were fooled all evening. Two doubles, one by Hefferan and one by Manager Douglas, were the only safeties by Palatine. The Tri-R squad tallied thrice on an error followed by a homer.

HEIDEN, businessmen's sponsored pitcher, twirled a good game and fanned five, but poor fielding cancelled his efforts.

Contributing gifts for the evening were a canned ham by Palatine Delivery, three pair nylons by Pearce's, leather billfold by Clarence Berlin and Paul Remington, automatic "de-frost-it" by Squire Shop, and $5.00 in trade by Palatine Paint & Glass.

Next home game for Palatine will be played Sunday, August 16, at 8:30 against Mac's Zippers of Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Dodgers Win 1st Game, 18-4, In Arlington Little League

By the Dad of A Little Leaguer

The Dodgers are in last place in the Arlington Heights Little League, but you'd never guess it by their enthusiasm and joy.

They have a special reason for their exuberance—they won their first game and left no doubt as to their margin of victory.

18-4—That was the final score of the Dodgers' crushing triumph over the Cardinals last Thursday night at Recreation park where all Arlington Heights Little League games are played, free to the public.

THE DODGERS had lost five straight games and nobody could blame them for swarming around their manager and coaches and sending up a special cheer for themselves.

Donald Snell pitched the route for the suddenly inspired Dodgers, setting the Cardinals down on five hits, striking out three and walking but two.

Donald's batterymate, Dick Nickelsen, and his brother, Gary Snell, slammed out three hits apiece. Dave Kussow and Fred Lussow helped the Dodger attack with two blows each.

MEANWHILE, the Giants and the Yankees fashioned victories that placed them on top in the standings with five wins, one loss and one tie each.

The Giants were the busier of the two, posting two decisions, a 5-4 thriller over the Braves in the second game of a doubleheader last Saturday and a one-sided 10-1 decision over the Braves Monday night of this week.

John Taylor, the younger half of the brilliant Taylor brother act (Tom also pitches), pitched the win over the Braves on Saturday, helping his own cause with two hits. Giants Ed Wolf and Cliff Scholl also chipped in two hits each and Eugene Bauer clouted a home run.

For the Braves, catcher Alan Sander smashed a double and a single and Jerry Kouzmanoff poled a triple.

IN MONDAY'S breeze over the Braves, Tom Taylor was at his best, limiting the Braves to two hits, striking out 10 and issuing only three passes. His brother, John, came through with two hits and Bob Bennett led the rout with three safeties.

In the other half of Saturday's twinbill, the pennant-minded Yankees cooled off the Dodgers, 6-0, behind the two-hit southpawing of Dennis Schumacher who hasn't allowed a run in 17-2/3 innings.

The Yankees got to Don Snell for only five hits, but like the New York Yankees they got them in the clutch and a homer by left fielder Dave Buren made things easier. Dick Nickelsen and Gary Snell got the only Dodger hits.

IN THE OTHER battle the past week, the Cardinals recovered from their shellacking by the Dodgers to score a 10-5 success over the Red Sox. Willie Meyer, the Cards' third baseman, homered with the bases loaded—the first grand-slam clout of the Arlington Heights Little League's inaugural season.

Willie enjoyed a perfect night with three hits in three trips and he scored twice. Danny Raupp pitched for the winning Cards, whiffing 10 and adding to his own laurels by knocking out two hits himself.

Jewelers Lead Tuesday Golf At Mt. Prospect

If ever there was a knock-down-drag-out battle, the Tuesday division of the Mount Prospect Twilight golf league is a shining example.

In first place by a slim one sixth of a point are the Mount Prospect Jewelers. They won a seven point victory from Keefer's Pharmacy to edge the consistent O'Day Realtors, who won six out of ten from Henry Kruse's Schlitz players.

It wouldn't be at all surprising to see some approach shots like Lew Worsham's last Sunday at Tam before the winner of this tight race is decided.

In third place are the Kruse Boys who just started to play well in the past month and can be counted upon to make things tough in the closing rounds.

Mount Prospect Lions club, currently in last place, is only 10½ points from first. Credit should be given Mr. Kraybill and the rest of the handicappers who did such a fine job of evenly matching the teams.

Standings August 4:

Mt. Prospect Jewelers	70 1/2
George O'Day Realtors	70 1/3
Henry Kruse's Schlitz	68 1/2
Mt. Prospect Electric	67 9/10

Veteran Staff Coaching All-Stars in Game Friday

This may be one of the most illustrious coaching staffs in the 20 year history of the college All-Star football game, which this year matches the collegians against the pro champion Detroit Lions in Chicago's Soldiers' field the night of Aug. 14.

Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech not only comes to camp with two unbeaten collegiate campaigns behind him, but is serving his second consecutive time as No. 1 man on the staff. That honor previously had been accorded only to Notre Dame's Frank Leahy, whose collegians won over the Chicago Bears, 16 to 0, in 1947. Leahy's All-Stars lost to the Chicago Cardinals in 1948.

George Sauer, an All-Star assistant from Baylor, was co-captain of the first college team in 1934. Sauer was a full back from Nebraska. Sharing the co-captaincy of the All-Stars with Sauer that year was a tackle called Edward (Moose) Krause, now Notre Dame's athletic director.

Stu Holcomb of Purdue, serving his second season as All-Star assistant to Dodd, this year appears in the role of coach of the the 1952 Big Ten co-champions. Holcomb's Boilermakers tied Wisconsin for the crown. Three members of that Purdue team, quarterback Dale Samuels, end Bernie Flowers and guard Allen Hager, are on the All-Star squad.

Bobby Voigts, an assistant on the All-Star staff since he became head man at Northwestern university, is another alumnus of the game, as is Navy's Eddie Erdelatz, the defensive whiz who is spending his first year on the staff.

Pasture Demonstration On Schaumburg Farm Next Tuesday, August 25

A pasture renovation demonstration will be held on Mrs. Henry Wilkening's farm, Tuesday, August 25, 1:30 p.m., at Schaumburg rd. and Old Plum Grove rd. The demonstration will include use of a subsoiler to break up hard pan, to reduce erosion and to improve plant growth. It will also include proper seed bed preparation, recommended soil treatment and approved seeding mixtures.

The pasture that was seeded two years ago on George Klein's farm at a similar demonstration is producing approximately 3 times as much as an unimproved pasture next to it. Improved pastures pay big dividends. Attend this demonstration and see for yourself how it is done.

The demonstration is sponsored cooperatively by the North Cook Soil Conservation Test and Extension Service.

Still Time To Build Cribs

Illinois farmers are reminded it isn't too late to build more crib space for an anticipated bumper corn crop.

On-the-farm storage will pay dividends as high or higher than in past years, the lead article in the August issue of The Record points out.

"Good temporary storage cribs can be built cheaply enough so that increased income from storing only one year's crop can, in some years, almost pay for construction," the article says.

THE ARTICLE features three farmers who have built cribs best designed to solve their corn storage problems. They are Wilbur Meador, Livingston county; Ralph Hinrichsen, McLean county; and Kelly Wilhelmi, Will county.

Meador converted an abandoned schoolhouse into a 3,000 bushel corn crib. It took him one month to convert the school, doing all the work himself in his spare time.

"It's acceptable for government storage," Meador says, "and the total cost was less than $500." Meador's storage space cost approximately 17 cents a bushel, the article points out.

Farmers To Vote Friday On Wheat Quota Policy

Every eligible farmer should register his vote in the wheat marketing quota referendum August 14, according to a statement issued by Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the local PMA committee.

Wheat growers, he said, have an important matter to decide on this date. Not only should they cast a ballot, but they should be well informed on what will happen if quotas are in effect, and what will happen if they are turned down.

Polling place will be at the PMA Office, Farm Bureau Building, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Polls will open at 10:00 a.m. and close at 6:00 p.m.

FARMERS WHO will be out of the county on the day of the election may make arrangements to cast an absentee ballot. If there is any individual who does not have farming interests in this county but has farming interests in some other county and considers himself an eligible voter, he may secure an absentee ballot at the local PMA office for mailing to such county. Such ballot must reach the county in which he is eligible to cast a vote by the time of closing the polls on the referendum date.

It should be clearly understood that no person is entitled to more than one vote regardless of the number of farms in which he has an interest.

GENERALLY speaking, any person who as owner or tenant will share in the proceeds of a 1954 wheat crop on a farm on which the acreage intended to be planted to wheat is in excess of 15 acres is entitled to vote.

Allotment notices have been mailed by the county office. These notices and the enclosed information leaflet should be studied carefully.

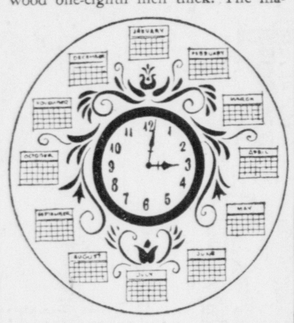
In conclusion Mr. Bormet stressed the referendum as a matter of much importance to wheat farmers. It is their opportunity, he said, to decide for themselves what the 1954 wheat program will be. Interested individuals who have any questions on this matter should feel free to call on us at the county office in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

Collar the Clock!

PUTTING a collar on the average kitchen timepiece will brighten up the clock wall and make it both attractive and more useful.

Lay the clock on a piece of paper and trace its outline. Transfer the drawing, by means of carbon paper, to a panel of Masonite Tempered Presdwood one-eighth inch thick. The material should be large enough to allow for the sawing of a "collar" to fit around the clock.



The center of the "collar" may be cut out with a coping or similar-type saw. To get the blade started, insert it in a hole bored near and inside the line marking the outline of the clock.

Shape of the clock will determine whether the outer edge of the "collar" is round, square or hexagonal. The distance between the clock and the outer edge of the Presdwood should range from four to six inches, depending on the size of the clock and the amount of wall space available.

Friction ordinarily will keep the "collar" in position, flat against the wall at the back of the clock, but if the sawing has been irregular and the border is loose, insert small pieces of wood to take up the slack.

Arranged in clockwise order around the clock's new border may be glued the leaves from a small calendar.

The ingenious homemaker can decorate the clock in various ways.

Kind Of Grain Won't Affect Egg Quality

Oats, corn or wheat—whichever you use in all-mash laying rations—will have no effect on egg quality or size. But oats fed alone will reduce body weight and lower egg production.

In University of Illinois tests, each of these grains was used as the only grain in an otherwise balanced standard ration. The rations and another involving a mixture of all three grains were fed to four lots of birds. Each lot received each ration for periods of three weeks.

Corn and wheat gave about the same results. But when oats were the only grain in the ration, the layers lost body weight and their egg production dropped.

Oats supply less energy than equal weights of corn and are so bulky that the chicks couldn't eat enough to keep their weight and production up. When the birds getting oats as their only grain were put back on a ration containing either corn or wheat, they regained their former production level.

Researchers broke more than 1,000 eggs in the test to measure the standing-up quality of the whites, which is one of the important characteristics of egg-quality in general, and the thickness of the shells. They found no differences brought about by the different grains.

Corn Storage

Farmers can earn about 13 cents a bushel by providing storage space in 33 northern Illinois counties for nearly 17 million bushels of 1952 corn stored on farms in that area.

Keep Hogs Cool For More Cool Cash

New ways for farmers to prevent hog losses due to the heat of hot summer days are outlined in the National Live Stock Producer. the nation's leading live stock journal.

The magazine points out that hogs weighing from 70 to 144 pounds gain most efficiently at temperatures of 75 degrees F. Hogs weighing from 166 to 260 pounds will gain best at 60 degrees F. These temperatures are a far cry from the 90 to 100 degree hot spells throughout the nation this time of year.

At 60 degrees F., fattening hogs requires about 380 pounds of feed for each 100 pounds of gain and as much as 1,296 pounds of feed is required for each 100 pounds of gain at temperatures of 91 degrees F. Hot weather tests indicate that hogs under 150 pounds waste 7 bushels of grain out of every 10 at 90 degree temperatures. Pigs between 160 and 260 pounds waste 72% of their feed.

KEEP YOUR HOGS cool on the farm with an open shed with hay or straw piled on top to keep out the sun or provide them with a sanitary hog wallow. A concrete bathtub helps hogs overcome the heat on the farm of Charlie Owings of Harpester, O. His hogs enjoy the sanitary hog wallow which keeps them cool and a thin film of oil on the surface protects them from lice and other parasites.

Hogs beat the heat on the farm of Robert C. Turner of Henry, Ill., by taking "midnight snacks" under electric lights controlled with a time clock. In a 63-day test (from July 1 to September 2) these porkers gained an average of 1.45 pounds per day to produce 100 pounds of pork on 275 pounds of feed. Lights went on for feeding periods at 10 to 11:30 p.m. and 2 to 3:30 a.m. Two 150 watt bulbs with reflectors lighted the feeding area at a cost of about 7 cents per hog.

Beekeepers to Meet At Worth Sunday

Beekeepers of Cook and DuPage counties will meet at the apiary of Secretary A. J. Smith, 5835 W. 127th st., Worth, Sunday, August 16, at 1:00 p. m.

L. P. Baker of Glencoe, an apiary inspector and queen expert, will demonstrate useful tricks in handling bees. Ellsworth Meineke, beekeeper and honey specialist of Arlington Heights will test honey samples for members and discuss plans for national Honey Week.

New High Energy Ingredient Aids Cows

Farmers of this area are now feeding livestock a new high-energy ingredient that speeds animal growth as much as one-third, reduces production costs, and promises substantial savings for consumers.

Heifer calves receiving the new ingredient in milk replacer during the 8 weeks' nursing period gained weight 33 per cent faster than their "sisters." The latter were on a standard whole-milk diet, but otherwise raised under identical conditions. Calves on the quick-growth ingredient also required one-third less feed for every pound of gain in weight, sharply reducing farmers' production costs.

Such results point to more meat at less cost for consumers. Large savings of whole milk for human consumption also would result, since veal calves could be produced less expensively without feeding them whole milk.

Pigs receiving the ingredient in weaning and finishing feeds reached an average market weight of 200 pounds one month earlier than usual, permitting advance sale when markets were up. They also brought premium prices of 25 cents per hundredweight above the market, and required 20 per cent less feed than hogs on standard diets.

Results with poultry have been equally dramatic. Scientists of the U. S. department of agriculture and a dozen state experiment stations at agricultural colleges are test-feeding the new ingredient, known by the product name of Hidrolex.

Soil Conservation On Farm TV Program

The story of soil conservation —a subject vital to the nation's food supply—will be dramatized on the "Farmtown, U. S. A." television show Saturday, August 15.

Farmers and soil conservation officials from DeKalb county will tell the story of the battle against erosion with slides, pictures, growing plants, and with a water run-off demonstration.

"Farmtown, U. S. A." is presented by the Illinois Agricultural Association and the Pure Milk Association. It can be viewed at 5 p. m. (CDT), over station WBBM-TV, channel 2.

Questions And Answers On Wheat Quotas

On August 14 every Illinois wheat grower who raises more than 15 acres of wheat will have a right to vote on whether or not marketing quotas for wheat will prevail in 1954.

L. F. Stice, University of Illinois farm economist, has answered a list of questions most farmers will be asking concerning marketing quotas:

Q.—Who can vote?

A.—Any farmer who has an allotment of more than 15 acres of wheat for 1954 or any farmer who intends to grow more than 15 acres in 1954.

Q.—Does the landlord or the tenant vote?

A.—Both in cases where they both share in the wheat crop.

Q.—BY WHAT majority do quotas have to be voted?

A.—Two-thirds of the farmers who vote must approve of marketing quotas if they are to go into effect.

Q.—What happens if the quotas are voted in?

A.—Farmers will be given an allotment, in acres, of the wheat they can grow and sell without penalty in 1954. Prices for wheat grown on that acreage will be supported at 90 per cent of parity.

Q.—WHAT WILL the size of the allotments be?

A.—Nation-wide, farmehs will be allowed to grow 80 per cent of their 1953 acreage. The Illinois acreage will be announced by the Production and Marketing Administration. County PMA will furnish acreage allotments to individual farmers before time to vote.

Q.—What happens if a farmer plants more wheat than his allotment?

A.—None of his wheat can be put under loan. In addition, he will pay a penalty of half the loan price for wheat grown on the acres above his allotment if the total is above 15 acres.

Q.—Can a farmer plant extra wheat for pasture or for home feeding?

A.—No.

Q.—Is there any way to avoid a penalty on wheat grown on acreage above the allotment?

A.—Yes, but it's complicated. You can store the wheat under seal on your farm or in a public warehouse until the next season at your own expense and at your own risk. The stored wheat can then be charged against your 1955 quota in case we have quotas.

Or you can give the excess wheat to the Secretary of Agriculture. You will still not be eligible for price supports on your allotted acreage, but you will avoid penalty.

Q.—WHAT WILL happen if the quotas are not passed?

A.—Wheat will be supported at 50 per cent of parity rather than at 90 per cent. And anyone who stays within his acreage allotments will be eligible.

Q.—If the marketing quotas don't pass, will we still have acreage allotments?

A.—Yes. The Secretary of Agriculture can announce acreage allotments without a vote.

Q.—WHAT HAPPENS then if you plant more than your acreage?

A.—You are not eligible for price supports at all, but you can grow all the wheat you want and do what you please with it without any penalty.

Q.—If marketing quotas aren't voted, will wheat sell for only half of parity price?

A.—Wheat will sell at market price, which could be above or below one-half of parity. The market will be free. It means that, if the bottom falls out of the wheat market, you can put your wheat under loan for 50 per cent of parity price, provided you stay within your acreage allotment.

Q.—Why can't the farmer vote who has fewer than 15 acres of wheat?

A.—There'll be no marketing quotas on operations that small. But there will be acreage allotments. He can plant up to 15 acres without penalty. But in order to be eligible for price supports, he must stay within his allotment. He doesnt' vote because a vote is not required for acreage allotments, and he is not subject to penalties under quotas.

Q.—HOW MUCH will a planted acreage of 62 million bushels reduce our supply of wheat?

A.—At the 1942-51 average of 17.1 bushels, production from 62 million acres would be 1,060 million bushels. This amount would at least equal our U. S. needs of about 700 million bushels, plus prospective exports.

Exports during the 1953-54 marketing season are expected to be about 300 million bushels. Therefore, unless we have low wheat yields in 1954, or unless export sales exceed expectations our "wheat surplus" will still be large when farmers start to plant their 1954 crop.

Planting within acreage allotments in 1954, then, may slow up or stop the build-up of wheat supplies, but it is not likely to reduce them. It would take either increased exports or low yields, or a combination of both, to reduce the surplus.

Record Cow

West-Villa Madcap Dots, a registered Holstein cow in the herd owned by Dorothy Hammerstein, Roselle, has just completed a lifetime production record of more than 100,000 pounds of milk on official test with the Holstein-Friesian association of America. (100,000 pounds of milk is the equivalent of approximately 47,500 quarts, four times the production of the average U. S. cow.)

In five milking periods, covering a total of 1,956 days, this cow has produced a total of 103,055 pounds of milk and 3,467 pounds of butterfat on 2 milkings daily. Her highest single record was made at the age of 6 years 7 months when she produced 21,810 pounds of milk and 770 pounds of butterfat.

New Ayrshires

Local dairymen have recently made an initial purchase of registered Ayrshires. They are Robert Pierce, Kenneth Pictrucha and Kenneth Bowsher of Roselle. Eeach bought one registered Ayrshire each.

Because of their ability to produce at a low cost an abundance of milk with an average butterfat test of 4%, the Ayrshire breed of dairy cattle has become increasingly popular with dairymen throughout the country.

Urge Deduction For Soil Saving From Farmer's Tax

The American farm bureau federation last week gave strong support to a bill to provide for the deduction from gross income tax purposes of expenses incurred by farmers for soil and water conservation.

The bill, H. R. 1809, would provide that farmers could treat the costs of terracing, contour furrowing, earth dams, diversion channels and other conservation measures as a farm expense in the year the expenditures are made or on a depreciable basis.

Present law requires, a farm bureau spokesman told a house ways and means committee hearing, that cash outlays for soil conservation practices must be capitalized. Thus a farmer is able to recover his expenses only when he sells his property.

"NATURALLY the farmer is not usually contemplating a sale," AFBF "especially one who is seriously desiring to improve the productivity of his land. The bill would, therefore, remove a substantial impediment against outlays which would conserve soil and water and prevent erosion.

"Oftentimes the outlays involved in programs of this nature require substantial disbursements in relation to annual income, and yet the farmer is desirous of undertaking them. Much could be achieved in this respect if such expenditures are made deductible or clearly treated as property subject to depreciation."

The farm bureau spokesman pointed out that the bill under consideration deals with problems relating to the physical improvement, maintenance, and conservation of soils as distinguished from improving the quality of the land by adding fertilizer.

"THE LATTER has been long recognized as deductible expense even though there are some elements of longevity in some fertilizer elements," he said. "It is not enough, however, that increases in plant food elements shall be the only type of expenditure which should be recognized as deductible inasmuch as a soil with proper physical requirements is equally important to agricultural productivity."

Legislation of this type has been discussed by farm bureau members for several years. As a result, the AFBF field crops advisory committee recommended, and the AFBG board of directors adopted as policy, that "AFBF urge the Treasury Department to adopt a policy which will permit farmers to make income tax deductions on farm improvements which classify as soil conservation practices."

'Kiss Me Kate' Next At Music Theater

Music Theater will present for 10 performances only, beginning Tuesday. August 18, one of the most popular musicals of all time, when it presents Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate." This musical is an adaptation of Shakespeare's play "Taming of the Shrew" with music and lyrics by Cole Porter, and book by Sam and Bella Spewack.

David Atkinson, Music Theater's favorite and handsome baritone, will be the shrew-tamer in the role of Fred Graham (Petruchio) singing the role that introduced him to Music Theater last season.

Following "Kiss Me Kate" the Music Theater will close its season in a blaze of glory when it presents Moss Hart's "Lady in the Dark," opening August 27 through September 6 with two Saturday matinees, for 13 performances only.

'But Not Goodbye' At Chevy Chase

Vera Ward, the talented Evanston Miss selected by producer Carl Stohn to play the lead in the present Chevy Chase summer theatre attraction, "The Heiress," again demonstrates her recent portrayal of a sagacious, sympathetic mother in the "Curious Savage," to her present role of a suave, sophisticated, poor little rich girl.

Tuesday, August 18, will mark the Chicago premiere of "—But Not Goodbye" at the picturesque Wheeling show place.

The plot of the pleasant tale revolves around the efforts of two ghosts to thwart the conniving attempts to fleece their worldly family of the riches they left behind. Mercita Vesely, the blonde and beautiful bombshell of the Chevy Chase players, headlines the cast.

College Camp Presents Choralists August 15

The Choralists, directed by John Holloran, will present the seventh program in the popuar concert series "Music by the Lake" at College camp, Wisconsin, Saturday, August 15, at 8 p.m., CST.

This group is composed of twenty-four well trained singers, whose only common bond is the joy they find in the singing of fine choral music according to the highest musical standards. The membership includes many well-known solists of church, radio, TV and concert, numerous teachers and several excellent composers. They come together from many communities of the Chicagoland area.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

A young business woman who lost her eyesight, later became owner and operator of a large farm. She was able to plow her fields with a tractor, do carpenter work, move about her barn and chicken house caring for her stock without help.

The loss of our sight would bring most of us to the brink of defeat, frustration, bitterness and despair; but to others it presents a challenge, an obstacle to meet and overcome.

WHAT COULD YOU do if, in one terrible moment, the light about you went out and you stood in darkness for the rest of your life? War veterans who lost their sight on the battle field amply answer this question. Hope and faith did not die because they could no longer see. Among all seriously disabled veterans at veteran hospitals, the blind are by far the most optimistic.

So great is their optimism as they learn to do well without sight the things which others do with it, that they are placed at the center tables in dining halls where they may serve as an example of courage and optimism to all other disable vets.

IT IS THROUGH the eyes that our knowledge of life comes most of all. What we read, what we know about other people, what we do, what we enjoy of nature and the beauties about us, is learned mostly through observation. Yet the value of sight is not all on the credit side. Often we see things which sicken the heart; death, a maimed body, sickness of a loved one. Too often we see things which affect the welfare of our souls—which arouse the desire for lust, the urge to steal, feelings of envy, hatred, or jealousy.

Almost every great loss in life is compensated for in some manner, if one has the courage, patience and faith to overcome its handicap. Not always is it compensation in material things; it may be compensation in greater patience, deep religious experience, new talents, or the advent of genius, before unsuspected. It may be in experience and knowledge gained. What one gains from defeat, what comes out of the crucible of fear, despair, suffering, depends largely on his attitude, strength of character, faith and determination.

The week end of September 26 and 27 has been named as the date for the fourth annual tour of historic Galena homes. The project is sponsored by the Guild members of the First Presbyterian church of Galena, itself the oldest church in the state still being used regularly for worship services. Guides and hostesses garbed in nineteenth century dresses and bonnets will welcome visitors to eight privately owned homes.

One of the attractions is the rose brick home of U. S. Grant who lived and worked in Galena before taking command of the Union forces in the civil war.

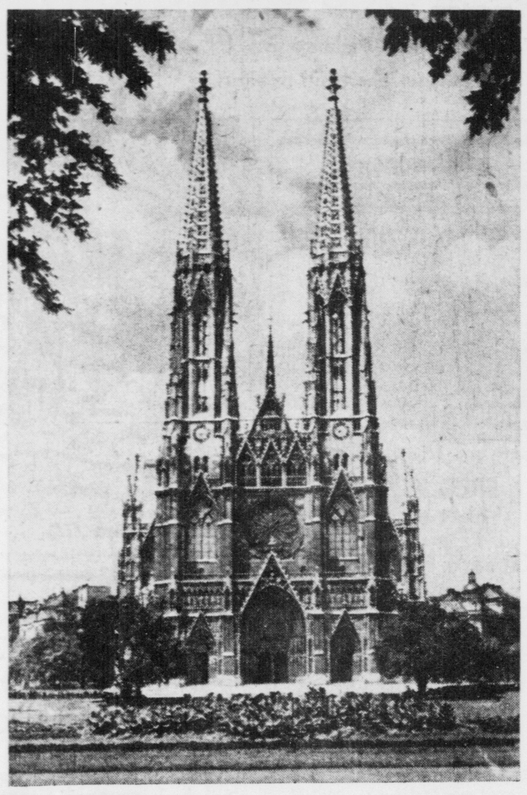
Finds Russian Soldiers Do Not Have Bolshevik Whiskers, But Are Boys



Not damaged by the war in Vienna is the Votivkirche, seen above, as visited by Bonnie Peterson of Arlington Heights. The church is located near the American embassy and the medical school in Vienna.

Adrienne "Bonnie" Peterson, 207 North Douglas, Arlington Heights, recently completed a tour of many countries in Europe, after studying at the University of Switzerland for a year. Her last story was about Switzerland. This time she tells about Austria and Bavaria.

We were trying our best to converse with two elderly ladies when our train came to a halt at Enns, Austria. And though we'd known our train would be stopped for Russian check as we entered their zone, our hearts started beating faster and our eyes and ears perked to catch everything they could. Everyone in our compartment showed some sense of excitement and it did not subside until the monotonous clacking of the locomotive wheels recommenced.

When the door of our section opened I was startled. Standing there in a dusky uniform, black leather boots, and red starred fur cap wasn't a big, burly, tough-faced Russian, as I'd expected, but a blonde, twinkling-eyed boy no taller than I and certainly not as old.

And while this was our first impression of the Russian military force, it was strengthened over and over again by the many "cossaks" we saw in Vienna. They were all very young, short, and looked as though they still could use a mother's watchful eye.

I WAS EVEN more disappointed on the following week when we watched the Russian parade on Sunday. There was a 50-piece band heading the parade and though the music was strange to me, I don't think it was much more familiar to the players because they were having a great deal of difficulty in even keeping time. The whole parade seemed rather impromptu in appearance, however, I'm sure it wasn't.

The columns of soldiers were arranged to size, but their uniforms were not arranged at all. Some had hats, others did not. Some had their coats buttoned and others were carrying everything from flowers to books in their hands. None had polished boots but they all had one thing in common — gazing around at the onlookers!

It was indeed an unusual parade and showed perhaps a lack of certain discipline in the Russian army. Unfortunately, this is not the type of discipline important to a soldier in battle.

VIENNA WAS the center of European culture for centuries so there is an endless list of things a visitor wants to see. Architectural beauty is as plentiful as sky scrapers in Chicago. But there are also many unusual things to see.

The most fascinating thing we found deep under the ground level of St. Stephens cathedral in the center of the city.

Here lie the catacombs where the Viennese buried their dead Like the catacombs in Rome where the early Christians were buried, there are caves filled with caskets. Cardinals and Archbishops from the 16th century have their resting place here, too. But for 150 years all the church members were buried in this place. Families would share "rooms" until the dead filled the space and then walls were built to seal the passage way and another "room" was started.

MOST UNUSUAL, though, was the burial for the poor. Unable to afford elaborate caskets — or any casket at all— their bodies were dropped into a hole in the floor of the cathedral and fell into a huge room where the bodies were left to decay.

After many years the remaining bones were collected and stacked in piles like cords of wood and sealed up in rooms.

There is no estimation as to the number of bodies buried there but after seeing one room about the size of Arlington's swimming pool stacked high with only skulls, I could but gasp. This custom of burial was stopped in about 1600 because there wasn't enough room left!

AFTER 2 WEEKS, wishing we could stay 2 more, we left for Bavaria, said to be the most beautiful part of Germany. True enough there are breath-taking scenes of green valleys and snow peaked mountains, colorful peasant dress of leather short pants and colored suspenders, gay swinging skirts and long blonde hair, and it was beautiful!

There are other sights in Germany not so pleasant. Crumbling buildings, littered, vacant lots, modernistic red brick apartments, and glass-walled department stores form unbelievable contrasts.

Some cities were more than one-half demolished during the final days of the war. And many of these same cities now stand as fine examples of planned rebuilding. But where there has been no money for post war construction, a city may give the appearance of having suffered a bombing 2 weeks before, you can imagine there are some people who are very bitter toward Americans.

BUT THE GAY spirit among the German people seems to be one thing unmarred by unpleasant times. In Hoffbrau house in Munich (the heart of Southern Germany) we found a beer cellar where the whole family—mama, papa, and children gathered at long picnic tables laughing and swinging great mugs of beer. To add to the gaiety a five piece peasant band played the favorite folk songs while the 1000 people gathered on that Sunday afternoon and sang.

We joined old ladies and men who tried to teach us German tunes while we exchanged with "Goodnight Irene" and other American songs to which they knew German words.

As everyone who visits, we too were interested in seeking famous paintings, ancient castles and hearing some of Wagner's operas. Nothing else we could do would please the German people we knew more, because they are so proud of their age old culture. They were so willing to answer any questions we strangers might have that we coudn't help but feel friendlier to them than any people we'd met.

And though there may have been much hostility toward us as a conquering nation, when we finally left Germany we felt a very close bond with a people we could have at one time hated.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

Old Gardners Never Die

Old gardners never die, they simply are transplanted
Their spirits go from space to space
To gardens in another place.
So, if beneath some grassy plot
You think they're planted, they are not!
You'll find them working early, late,
On flower beds at heaven's gate
While from his lodge St. Peter peers,
"It's prettier than it's been in years."
A busy gardner lifts her head,
"It used to look like hell," she said.
—Alice Ruth McKeon

If you missed the Lake Geneva flower show, held last Friday and Saturday, you missed one of the finest horticultural exhibits presented around this area for a long time. There's something so inspiring about flower shows, and this particular show, "Garden Melodies," was fairly blooming with creativeness, originality and beauty.

THE FIRST EXHIBIT Megan and I spotted as we approached the horticultural hall, was the scarecrow display. On the lawn stood eight life size scarecrows, each dressed in the most intriguing costumes I or any blackbird ever saw. Megan was delighted. "All dressed up and no place to go," read the tag on the one attired in striped trousers and cutaway coat, cane, gloves and top hat. "The Third Man" took a blue ribbon—a darkly garbed, sinster looking scarecrow, holding a zither in his straw hands!

Upon entering the building we wandered first into the large exhibit room where as usual, on step-like shelves, the growers displayed their finest specimens of gladioli and zinnias.

Is there anything more vividly beautiful that the flowers of a heavily blossomed gladiolus stalk?

At one end of this room, a miniature, semi-circle terrace garden had been built of rough, salmon colored brick. The shade of the brick matched the petunias, geraniums and patches of color in the leaves of the caladium. A little fountain sparkled in the midst of all this pink and greenery.

THE SHADOW BOXES lined one wall of the room. The striking simplicity of "Winter Wonderland" earned this box a blue ribbon. Although it contained nothing more than rolling mounds of some white substance (either sugar or salt) and nicely arranged brown twigs and branches, it looked for all the world like a bleak, winter's landscape. However, I thought that "June in January" was even more interesting.

The box was arranged in such a way that you felt as if you were standing inside a very modern room, looking through a picture window at the snowy yard outside.

At the base of the window, through which you were looking, was a tiny indoor flower box, filled with delicate, little white flowers and green plants.

OUR NEXT STOP was the corridor containing the table settings. I'm never too impressed by these exhibits, for I feel that the table cloth and accessories are so often on display, rather than the flower arrangements. However, as you might expect, the tables were exquisite—especially the one entitled "Deep Purple," an arrangement of dark, dark purple gladioli with white and purple grapes, in a pale lavender setting.

Also, in this room were the two unusual classifications, "Fantasia" and "Humoresque."

Under the first classification, the one I thought perfectly darling was "Me and My Shadow"—a grouping of pink geraniums, standing in front of a print of pink geraniums whose flowers were in the exact position and shade of the real ones.

Under the "Humoresque" classification, such titles as "Trying" and "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen" were used to represent flowers in the process of being artfully arranged.

I HAVE SEEN the exquisite effect of roses in silver containers, but have never considered roses in pewter, have you? One of the other unusual classes of the show specified pewter containers and was entitled "One Dozen Roses." Each one of the entrys was delightful, with its deep, soft color of rose, and warm, dull look of pewter, so perfectly mated.

Really a grand show, Peg!

My love,
Patty.

Better Judgment

In regard to a front page article in yesterday's Register, I wish to make a recommendation. A very prominent article described a local citizen as going "berserk." The story was written in an unsympathetic, crude style, using names and information which will very probably injure this unfortunate family's status in the community.

A neighboring local paper follows what I consider to be a very humane policy. As far as I have observed they refrain from printing names or personal information which may hurt people in the local community. For example, they do not print the names of teen agers involved in delinquency charges unless they are indicted. They also omit divorce news. And they certainly would be careful in printing a story like the one referred to above.

I recommend the same practice to you. Such a story, if not omitted entirely, could at least be handled with such delicacy and sympathy that the least possible harm may be done to the unfortunates involved.

Your fine paper renders great service in our community and this comes only as a constructive criticism, without which none of us could progress.

Wood Dale Community Church.

Growing Town

I am enclosing check for $4.00 to further my subscription to Arlington Heights Herald.

To an "ex-oldtimer" it is interesting indeed to watch the old town develop. Building in all directions, modernizing old business places and bringing in new.

The Jacobs business block on Pine and Highway would seem a step in the right direction toward the north. It is hoped the erection of ultra-modern stores, the acme of trading center will soon be a realization on the north side proper, to answer the needs of those who have been clamoring for years for a north-side shopping center, and which the ever-increasing population now so obviously warrants.

Good Printing

You are no doubt familiar with the International Council of Industrial Editors which sponsors a House Organ Contest each year. As you probably know we have made a practice of entering this contest in order to determine how we compare with other industrial magazines across the nation.

We recently received our score in the year's contest and I thought you would be interested in knowing our rating. Magazines were judged upon editorial balance, writing quality, and appearance and were broken down into groups according to their circulation. In our class there were several hundred magazines entered and the scores ranked from 55 to 96½, with a medium score of 81½. CLIC magazine scored 87 which as you can see is quite good in comparison with other magazines. In fact, I believe awards were given to magazines scoring 90 and above.

The judging committee returned our score with the following comment: "Your sales organ is a commendable job done in good taste.

I should like to take this opportunity to thank you and all of your staff for the many contributions you have made toward making CLIC the magazine it is today.

In conclusion I should like to add that we look forward to many more years of pleasant association with your organization.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

A friend of ours was telling us tht other day about a tribe in Africa that had a sort of a "spit on the king day." We think it was an African tribe but such details always escape us when we are listening to a good story. Anyway, one day out of the year, the king has to sit in a chair in the heart of the city while anyone who has a gripe about something can go by and spit in his eye and call him names.

We think the idea has untold possibilities. Just think how happy the already happy communists would be to tell Malenkov just what a dish he really is.

We will admit that there isn't too much use for a gimmick of this type here in the United States. While it isn't considered cricket to spit, we certainly are in no way held back from saying anything to anyone.

Still the idea of telling off one's boss in no uncertain terms or kiddies blasting at their parents might be poetic justice once in a while.

It might disrupt our way of life and we just aren't too sure that we want our small fry telling us what they think of us. We rather like them the way they are now, frustrated.

What wonderful things these Little Leagues are. The pictures of the boys in their uniforms are priceless. Such poise and pride is certainly deserving of support from everyone. Who knows when a scout from the major leagues may show up to look at all this budding talent.

Think of the untold energy that the boys put into their games which we understand are run strictly according to big league rules.

The idea of having the authentic uniforms and the names is perfect. Even people without boys or children should give this project their wholehearted support.

Someone should have a long talk with the weatherman on just what kind of a night to have when all the children swim their hearts out in the water ballet. That night goes out of its way to be the coldest of the summer.

How the performers perform with their skin covered with goose pimples and their teeth knocking is beyond us but the show goes on in professional style and the audience can never tell by watching that probably the children wish they were home in bed with a cup of hot cocoa.

Sometimes we hear people pooh-poohing Lions clubs saying that the men in them act too silly and that the conventions are just for the fun of running around in the big city.

Being female, we have not been above making disparaging remarks of our own. The other night we had our ideas changed by a full report of what the local club has spent on good works during the year. And now the Lion Olympics are this week which takes untold planning and supervision.

When the guests at the Lutheran Home want an outing at Lincoln park, who provides the transportation? The Lions club does, either with their own cars or by chartering buses. Men who plan such things can't be too frivilous.

Sorry To Leave

We would like to take this way to thank the many people who have wished us well in our move to LaMesa, Calif., and also to let them know how deeply we appreciate their expressions of concern at our leaving Arlington Heights. Having lived in Arlington Heights for six years and being principal of the Junior high school for three years, we did not find it easy to make the decision to go to California.

We will both miss the Arlington Heights boys and girls with whom we have found it so easy to work, and we hope that working with boys and girls in California will give us the same pleasure.

We will long remember the City of Good Neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Savage

High School Grads Eligible for Wings

For the first time since World War II high school graduates now are eligible to apply for air force flying training directly from civilian life. Air force headquarters, Washington, D. C. recently announced that a college education was no longer an entrance requirement for aircraft observer training in the aviation cadet program.

The aircraft observer is schooled in navigation, bombardment, radar operation, or aircraft performance engineering, and upon completing training becomes a crew member of bombardment, transport, reconnaissance, or interceptor type aircraft.

For complete information on Aircraft Observer training, a high school graduate should contact Aviation Selection Team No. 401, O'Hare intenational airport, Park Ridge.

Peregrination: a traveling or going about; a wandering. "In his recent peregrination, the man had visited fourteen countries."

Eight-Year-Old Swims Across Crystal Lake

Jim Nies, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Nies, of the North Shore successfully fulfilled a great desire when he swam across the lake from the north shore to the south shore.

Swimming along with him was 14 year old Danny Newton of Chicago. Jim's dad and brother Johnnie rowed alongside the 2 boys in case they should tire and find it necessary to give up.
